NARRATIVE

stated the following: After having diner with co-workers, her husband Matthew Bailey (w/m 10/21/1969) picked her up from CVS located at Northlake Blvd. and Military Trail. A. Bailey advised that she was waiting there in the car with two male co-workers until M. Bailey arrived at approximately 2200 hours. Once her husband arrived, he got very upset that she was in the company of two male co-workers. On their way home, M. Bailey continued being upset at her and started a loud verbal argument with her. A. Bailey advised that upon their arrival at home, she proceeded to go to bed in the guest bedroom. Shortly after laying down, M. Bailey entered the guest bedroom to continue their argument. A. Bailey told her husband that she wished to go to sleep and wanted to be left alone. At this point, M. Bailey grabbed her arm and unsuccessfully attempted to pull her out of the bed. A. Bailey stated that she did not want to be touched by M. Bailey and wanted to be left alone. Bailey then left the guest bedroom and returned shortly thereafter. M. Bailey then threw water into A. Bailey`s face. At this point, A. Bailey got up from the bend, and followed her husband into the kitchen and advised him that she is going to call the police. A. Bailey walked back to the guest bedroom with M. Bailey following her. After entering the guest bedroom, M. Bailey pushed her and she stumbled backwards into a night stand. A. Bailey advised that at this time, M. Bailey left the guest bedroom and both parties separated. She stated that she did not sustain any injuries.

M. Bailey stated the following: He received a phone call from his wife who stated that two of her male co-workers are driving her home after a work dinner. M. Bailey advised that he told his wife that he did not like that two male co-workers are driving her home and he would pick her up and for her to wait at CVS at Northlake Blvd. and Military Trail. Upon his arrival, he noticed that she was waiting in the car with the two male co-workers, which upset him. M. Bailey advised that on their way home, he told his wife how upset he was about her wanting to be driven home by two males, rather than him picking her up. Once they arrived home, he wanted to continue their argument, but she wanted to go to sleep in the guest bedroom. M. Bailey stated that he felt as if his wife owed him an explanation and he grabbed her arm and started pulling her out of the bed. M. Bailey advised that she resisted and he left the guest bedroom to get some water. M. Bailey then returned to the guest bedroom and threw water in A. Bailey`s face to grab her attention. At this time, A. Bailey followed M. Bailey into the kitchen, told him that she would call the police and returned back into the guest bedroom. As A. Bailey was closing the guest bedroom`s door, M. Bailey stated that he pushed the door into his wife because he was afraid that she would lock him out of the room. The door then hit A. Bailey and she stumbled backwards.

Based upon my above described investigation, I determined that Matthew Bailey was the primary aggressor in the domestic altercation. I found probable cause to arrest Matthew Bailey for DOMESTIC BATTERY as he did actually and intentionally touch or strike Angela Bailey against the will of Angela Bailey and Matthew Bailey was a was a family or household member of Angela Bailey, contrary to Florida Statute 784.03(1), 741.28 and 741.283 (1 DEG MISD)

I advised Matthew Bailey that he was under arrest for the above-mentioned charge and placed him into handcuffs behind his back, checked for proper fit and double locked them. M. Bailey was transported to the Jupiter Police Department for processing. M. Bailey was subsequently transported to the Palm Beach County Jail without incident. A. Bailey was provided with a Domestic Violence Notice of Legal Rights and Remedies pamphlet and I submitted the signed portion to the Jupiter Police Department.

The above incident was captured on my body-worn camera and the narrative is a summary of the events that took place and not purported to be verbatim.
