Probable Cause

On 6/8/23, at approximately 2:51 AM, The Lake Wort Regional Communications Center (LWRCC) dispatched me to assist the Turnpike Road Ranger on a disabled vehicle. The Road Ranger needed assistant for a female that was running into the roadway and was acting disorderly. When I arrived on scene, the female later identified as Ms. McKala Gaither by her United States Passport. While on scene, I detected a strong smell of an alcoholic beverage emitted from her mouth and body. Ms. Gaither was swaying back and forth and had a slurred speech. Ms. Gaither was incoherent and not make sense in conversation. Ms. Gaither began dancing on the right shoulder, then proceeded to stumble into the outside travel lane into traffic! When Sergeant Henry Cichoski and Palm Beach County Sheriff Deputy's arrived on scene, Ms. Gaither was not obeying lawful orders, and began to act disorderly. Ms. Gaither was placed into handcuff's by Deputy J. Shackelford and placed inside his vehicle. At this time, Ms. Gaither was placed under arrest for Disorderly Intoxication, Florida State Statute 856.011. At approximately (time), Ms. Gaither was transported the Palm Beach County Corrections Facility by Deputy J. Shackelford. When we arrived, we transfer her custody over to the jail. No further information at this time.

At 242 I walked up on a Jeep (PWC 5657) and observed a woman passed out in the drivers seat. I tried waking her up for around 5 minutes. When she came through she was angry and violent towards me. At that time I informed her that I was calling FHP.

A few minutes later she jumped on her hood of her jeep and then came at my truck. After I asked her to get back into her car she became violent again and ran into the left lane. I then got out cause trucks were coming and dragged her off the road, which then I held on to her until FHP showed up at around 330A

Identification Produced: A160 423 74 4140

At 242 I walked up on a Jeep (PWC 5657) and observed a woman passed out in the drivers seat. I tried waking her up for around 5 minutes. When she came through she was angry and violent towards me. At that time I informed her that I was calling FHP.

A few minutes later she jumped on her hood of her jeep and then came at my truck. After I asked her to get back into her car she became violent again and ran into the left lane. I then got out cause trucks were coming and dragged her off the road. which then I held on to her until FHP showed up at around 330A

On 6/8/23, at approximately 2:51 AM, The Lake Wort Regional Communications Center (LWRCC) dispatched me to assist the Turnpike Road Ranger on a disabled vehicle. The Road Ranger needed assistant for a female that was running into the roadway and was acting disorderly. When I arrived on scene, the female later identified as Ms. McKala Gaither by her United States Passport. While on scene, I detected a strong smell of an alcoholic beverage emitted from her mouth and body. Ms. Gaither was swaying back and forth and had a slurred speech. Ms. Gaither was incoherent and not making sense in conversation. Ms. Gaither began dancing on the right shoulder, then proceeded to stumble into the outside travel lane into traffic. When Sergeant Henry Cichoski and Palm Beach County Sheriff Deputy's arrived on scene, Ms. Gaither was not obeying lawful orders and continued to evade reasonable about of space between herself and other troopers to a point of concern for officer safety. When Ms. Gaither began to act disorderly and aggressive, she was placed into handcuff's by Deputy J. Shackelford and placed inside his vehicle. At this time, Ms. Gaither was placed under arrest for Disorderly Intoxication, Florida State Statute 856.011. At approximately 3:50 AM, Ms. Gaither was transported the Palm Beach County Corrections Facility by Deputy J. Shackelford. When we arrived, we transfer her custody over to the jail. No further information at this time.
