NARR

On Sunday, April 5th, 2026, at approximately 2025 hours, I was dispatched to 4011 36th Ct. Unit #6E in reference to a disturbance.

Prior to my arrival, the caller stated they can hear people outside arguing and thinks two males were fighting.

Upon my arrival, I was greeted by the victim, Zachary Lira [redacted], in the parking lot. Lire was sweating profusely, had a torn shirt in the upper front collar and chest area, was barefoot, had a small fresh and reddish abrasion on the right side of his face near his nose and had a fresh cut on his left foot near the outside of his foot; near his pinky toe.

Lire advised via sworn statement he and his boyfriend, who he identified as Michael Wilholt (W/M 12/10/89), were in an argument prior to arriving back at the residence due to Wilholt driving while intoxicated. Lire expressed his concerns for their safety and Wilholt became angry with him and began striking him with an open hand. According to Lire, Wilholt was driving and he was in the front seat sustaining strikes toward his face. Lire urged Wilholt to pull over so he can get out of the vehicle. Lire eventually got out of the vehicle at the front of the apartment complex and walked towards the apartment. Lire alleged Wilholt jerked the vehicle towards him while he was walking acting if he was going to hit him with the vehicle, however, kept driving and eventually parked and went inside the residence.

Lire advised he met Wilholt back at the residence and told him how he just wanted his things and was going to leave. According to Lire, Wilholt was nice at first, telling him they should work on things but quickly changed to aggressive when Lire still wanted to gather his belongings and leave. Lire stated Wilholt grabbed at his shirt, ripping it, and threw him into the bushes outside and began throwing his belongings outside.

Lire advised this is when he notified a friend to come pick him up as well as the police. Lire advised he ended up back in the residence with Wilholt gathering more of his items when the physical confrontation continued. Lire alleged Wilholt grabbed a large body-sized mirror and threw it at him, which ended up cutting his foot and once struck with the object, Lire stated Wilholt stated, "that`s what you deserve".

Lire eventually gathered all of his belongings and his friend arrived to pick him up and shortly after, police arrived.

Attempt to contact Wilholt was conducted at the residence, however, no one answered the door. I also attempted to reach Wilholt via landline, yielding negative results.

Lire advised he and Wilholt have known each other for seven years, been intimately dating since November of 2025 and they have once lived together from March of 2026 till approximately the beginning of April 2026. Lire does not have a key nor access to the residence and therefor could not allow us inside. Their dynamic classifies this incident as domestic in nature.

Lire provided Wilholt`s first and last name with his date of birth. Lire added Wilholt is from Michigan. An NCIC/FCIC query of the name provided yielded Wilholt`s identification with a photograph. A familiarization photograph was presented to Lire, confirming Wilholt as the offender.

It was clear and evident based on the sworn statement provided by Lire that a physical confrontation took place. Lire had a torn shirt, fresh injuries to his foot and face, and was sweating profusely. However, without confirmation that the body-mirror was used during the incident, I am unable to confirm this aggravating circumstance. The injury to his foot did not indicate a glass mirror was used to inflict the damage left behind. Additionally, without an adequate third party witness or an admission of guilt, the crime of aggravated assault (with the vehicle) is also not being added.

Due to the above-stated facts, I find probable cause to charge Wilholt with one (1) count of Domestic Battery, pursuant to FSS 784.03 (1A1) DOM.

Active probable cause will be added via hot sheet and placed in the 0-10 day folder. If Wilholt is not apprehended during this time, a warrant will be submitted to the SAO. BWC active.
