IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE THIRTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT
OF STATE OF FLORIDA IN AND FOR HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY
CRIMINAL JUSTICE DIVISION

STATE OF FLORIDA
VS
MILLA RYANN LEMONS

CASE No.: 2026-CM-002559

DIVISION: O

ORDER FOR NO CONTACT WITH VICTIM

The above-named defendant has been charged with a crime. Pursuant to 903.047 F.S., in addition to refraining from criminal activity, the following conditions of pretrial release are imposed:

1. The defendant is prohibited from having any direct or indirect contact with the following person(s), (hereinafter "the victim") ANTHONY VALLE JR (v), except as permitted through pretrial discovery pursuant to the Florida Rule of Criminal Procedure. This order includes the following prohibited acts:
    a. Communicating orally or in any written form, either in person, telephonically, electronically, or in any other manner, either directly or indirectly through a third person, with the victim or any other person named in the order. This includes social media.
    b. Having physical or violent contact with the victim or other named person or his or her property.
    c. Being within 500 feet of the victim's or other named person's residence, even if the defendant and the victim or other named person share the residence.
    d. Being within 500 feet of the victim's or other named person's vehicle, place of employment, or a specified place frequented regularly by such person.

2. The defendant may return to the victim's residence to obtain personal belongings only with law enforcement accompaniment. Going to the home or remaining at the home without the police will subject the defendant to arrest.

3. If the victim and the defendant have a child in common, at the request of the defendant the court may designate an appropriate third person to act for the sole purpose of facilitating the defendant's contact with the children. Defendant's requested third party: _____

4. The court may impose additional terms of pretrial release on a case by case basis. Additionally, the terms of the no contact order do not prohibit an attorney for the defendant, consistent with rules regulating The Florida Bar, from communicating with any person protected by the no contact order for lawful purposes.

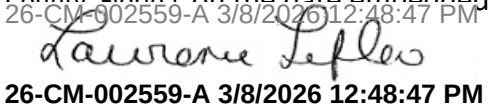

This order is effective immediately and enforceable for the duration of the pretrial release or unless it is modified by the court. THE VICTIM(S) CANNOT WITHDRAW THIS ORDER. EVEN IF THE VICTIM(S) WOULD LIKE TO HAVE CONTACT WITH YOU, YOU MUST NOT HAVE ANY CONTACT WITH THE VICTIM(S) UNLESS THE COURT CHANGES THIS NO CONTACT ORDER IN WRITING.

Violation of this order may be a first-degree misdemeanor which carries a maximum punishment upon conviction of one year in jail and a fine of $1,000.00 or may subject the defendant to criminal contempt of court charges and/or result in revocation of bond or pretrial release.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the address of the victim included in this Order are confidential crime victim information pursuant to Florida Rule of Judicial Procedure 2.423 and are protected from disclosure by article 1, section 16 of the Florida Constitution. The Clerk of the Court shall mark and keep the victim's address as confidential and not available for public view.
