This report is just a synopsis. For exact information, see the Body Worn Camera footage uploaded to evidence.com

On 08/15/2026 at 1453 hours, I responded to the Supervisor of Elections located at 4301 Cherry Road, West Palm Beach, FL, regarding individuals soliciting on the property. I observed Nancy Ross standing near the parking garage holding her cell phone videoing people and law enforcement as they arrived on scene. I have had a previous encounter with Nancy Ross reference PBSO case number: 26-084333 in reference to the same issue with soliciting on property in the parking garage and refusing to stand where the proper barriers are placed around the property. The signs and cones and barriers are properly posted around the property.

Deputy Vera ID: 13002 was on scene and had witnessed the soliciting activity. Deborah Mackey, the complainant, approached and explained that individuals were campaigning inside the restricted area. She is the Security Coordinator. She stated they were not allowed to solicit or campaign within 150 feet of the building entrance, which was marked by cones with signs. Mackey indicated that some of these individuals had been warned on Monday reference previous PBSO case number 26-084333 and told they would be trespassed if they returned. She stated others had been contacted on a previous date as well, PBSO case number: 26-085620.

Mackey stated the group consisted of four people total: two males and two females. She identified one male as Jeffrey Buongiorno, a candidate running for House District 89. Mackey stated the other female was Nancy Ross. She explained that the group had various campaign signs and were soliciting voters, which violated the 150-foot rule. Mackey confirmed that people were allowed to campaign on the opposite side of Cherry Road and in the library parking lot, but not within the marked boundary on the government building side.

I made contact with Buongiorno, who was wearing campaign materials. I advised him he could not solicit at that location and needed to leave. Buongiorno asked under what authority he was being asked to leave.

Buongiorno questioned the grounds for trespass. I stated he was being asked to leave by the property representative and was not allowed to solicit in that area. Buongiorno was placed under arrest, see PBSO case number: 26-085850. While this incident took place, Ross was present and videoing the incident with her cell phone.

I made contact with Ross, who was standing in the restricted area with her cell phone recording the incident. I advised her she needed to leave or would be trespassed. Ross stated she was a citizen journalist and wanted to check on her early voting ballot. I again advised her to leave. Ross stated she was stopping to check her ballot and continued recording. I repeated the trespass warning and also explained to her that she had been standing by the parking garage on our arrival and was just here video recording the previous incident with Buongiorno. Ross did not leave the property. Based on her refusal to leave after being given a clear opportunity, I placed Ross under arrest for trespass after warning. I placed my PBSO handcuffs on Ross's wrists, which were checked for proper fit and double locked for safety. She was placed in the rear of my marked PBSO vehicle and the rear camera activated.

Based on my observation, I find Probable Cause to charge Nancy Ross with Trespass after Warning, FSS 810.09(2)(a). She was Trespassing in my presence as a law enforcement officer.

Sergeant Edwards ID: 16217 was on scene during this incident.

Ross was placed under arrest. I transported her to the Palm Beach County jail without any incident.

This entire incident was recorded on my Body Worn Camera and was uploaded to evidence.com.

This case is cleared by arrest.
