NARRATIVE

I spoke with Jeffrey Lezark, who stated the following:

He had received a phone call from his daughter that her husband, Nicholas Littnan (W/M 01/25/1980) was being aggressive. She wanted Jeffrey Lezark to come over for assistance in calming Littnan. When he arrived, Littnan approached him and was in a calm and collective mood. Throughout his interaction with Littnan, he said it would go from being a calm conversation, to Littnan yelling for no reason. Jeffrey Lezark then left the residence and waited on the front porch while his daughter tried to calm Littnan. While waiting outside, he heard yelling and screaming and items being thrown around coming from inside the residence. At this time, he made the choice with Alexandra Lezark to leave the residence and call 911.

I spoke with Alexandra Lezark who stated the following:

She and Littnan were consuming alcoholic beverages at a friend`s house on Pompano Dr. and they came home for the night. Upon arriving at the residence, Littnan became agitated for no apparent reason. He was yelling and becoming hostile. She attempted to talk to him and try to deescalate the situation but was not successful. Littnan began to smash household items while yelling at Alexandra Lezark. Both parties exited through the front door of the residence and continued to argue on the front porch. Littnan then threw a chair from the porch, down the steps. Littnan then pushed Alexandra Lezark with bare open hands, making contact with her chest, which caused her to fall into a chair that was left on the porch. At this time, Alexandra Lezark called her father Jeffrey Lezark over the phone to come to her house for assistance to calm Littnan. Jeffrey Lezark arrived and Littnan would not cooperate and remained being aggressive. Jeffrey Lezark then stepped outside of the residence so Alexandra Lezark could speak with Littnan. While she was speaking to Littnan, he flipped a coffee table. He then flipped the coffee table a second time, striking Alexandra Lezark on top of her right foot creating a small laceration.

Based on the statements and totality of circumstances, probable cause exists to charge Nicholas Littnan with Battery (Domestic) as Nicholas Littnan did actually and intentionally touch or strike Alexandra Lezark against the will of Alexandra Lezark {or} did intentionally cause bodily harm to Alexandra Lezark, contrary to Florida Statute 784.03(1).
