☐ Marsy's Law CVI FL Const. Art.1 § 16(b)

NARRATIVE:

On 7/4/2023 at approximately 22:10 Hours I was working an off duty detail assigned to the Phil Foster Park, located at 900 E. Heron Blvd, in unincorporated Riviera Beach, Palm Beach County, Florida. I was operating a PBSO Marked vehicle equipped with emergency lights and sirens. I was wearing a PBSO issued exterior vest with "Sheriff" patches visible on the front and rear, along with full duty gear that clearly identified me as Law Enforcement.

While on-foot in the eastern boat ramp area, I could hear a verbal argument going on near the middle boat ramp area. As I looked over I observed two male subjects standing toe-to-toe in a fighting stances. I observed the smaller male, later identified as Nicolas Quastler, attempt to swing on the large male, later identified as Robert Goss. Goss swung back in self defense and punched Quastler in the face. This caused a group of people to gather around creating a disturbance. I ran over, with my taser displayed, and ordered Goss to the ground. D/S Russell #30525 also ran up and assisted with detaining Goss. At the same time Quastler began walking up behind us and D/S Russell ordered him to get back. Quastler did not follow his commands to get back therefor D/S Russell approached him to detain him. Quastler resisted D/S Russelll by pulling away from him and was escorted to the ground. While on the ground Quastler would not place one of his hands behind his back. Florida Fish and

NARRATIVE CONTINUATION

Wildlife Officer Fillip arrived on scene and assisted D/S Russell by placing Quastler's other hand behind his back.

I escorted Goss to my vehicle and placed him into the rear of my car. I observed Lt. Fillip and D/S Russell struggling with Quastler while attempting to escort him to a vehicle. Quastler was moving around and attempting to break the grasp of the Officers while screaming profanities.

I spoke with Goss, who remained calm in the rear of my vehicle. Goss stated that this argument was over Quastler blocking the boat ramp. Goss noted he has Quastler and his friend to move the boat out of the way multiple times but they refused. Goss stated he became frustrated and pushed the top of the boat while he told them to move. Goss noted that is when Quastler approached him in a fighting stance. Goss stated he was not going to get punched first so he threw the first punch. Goss noted he did not want to press charges against Quastler.

I attempted to explain to Quastler the situation but he refused to let me speak as to what was going on. While speaking with Quastler it was apparent that he was extremely intoxicated due to the strong smell of an unknown alcoholic beverage emitting from his person. Quastler had blood shot glossy eyes with slurred speech. Quastler was extremely irrate during the entire encounter and clearly wasn't making sound decisions.

NARRATIVE CONTINUATION

While in the rear of the patrol vehicle Quastler was complaining about his handcuffs being to tight. I removed Quastler from the vehicle and adjusted the handcuffs per PBSO policy. Quastler continued to complain about the handcuffs and refused to provide me his date of Birth. Quastler stated he would give me his information if I fixed his handcuffs, which had already been fixed.

After speaking with a few people on the dock they advised Quastler was the problem.

Due to the above information, probable cause exists to charge Quastler with two counts of Resist without Violence, Pursuant to F.S.S. 843.02, as he refused to follow lawful commands from D/S Russell and refused to provide me with his date of birth while lawful detained. Further, probable cause exists to charge Quastler with Disorderly intoxication in a public place.

☐ Marsy's Law CVI FL Const Art.1 § 16(b)

NARRATIVE:

Quastler was transported to JFK Medical Center for medical clearance to a cut on his right ankle and abrasions to his left shoulder. While inside of the hospital he was extremely uncooperative and refused medical services. suspecting Quastler was going to batter medical staff due to him not wanting his blood pressure taken, I held his left shoulder and left hand to control him. Quastler then forcefully grabbed the fingers on my right hand causing extreme pain to shoot up my arm. As a reaction to the pain I physically restrained him on the chair. Quastler was extremely rude to medical staff and was released Against Medical Advice due to his behavior.

Due to the above information probable cause exists to charge Quastler with Battery on a Law Enforcement Officer, Pursuant to F.S.S. 784.07(2b)
