☒ was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation.

On the 24 day of August, 2024 at 03:22 (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.)

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

At approximately 01:27 hours on 08/24/2024, I was conducting patrol at W Indiantown Rd and 67th Rd N. I was at the red light on W Indiantown Rd facing westbound in the left lane. A white Lincoln bearing FL tag KU445K was in the middle lane at the red light on W Indiantown Rd facing westbound. The light turned green and the aforementioned vehicle accelerated so fast that the tires skipped before the vehicle started moving and made a loud screeching noise for approximately 2 seconds. We began traveling westbound on W Indiantown Rd and then came to a stop at the red light at Island Way. Once again, when the light turned green the vehicle accelerated so fast the tires skipped before the vehicle started moving and made another loud screeching noise for approximately 2 seconds. The vehicle began traveling westbound at a high rate of speed. I was traveling approximately 70 MPH in a posted 50 MPH zone in an attempt to catch up to the vehicle and it was still gaining distance on me. The vehicle traveled onto the northbound on-ramp to Interstate 95 the same time a semi-truck was getting on the on-ramp from the eastbound to the northbound lane. The northbound on ramp from westbound has a yield sign which gave the semi-truck the right of way. The vehicle was still traveling at a high rate of speed and got so close to the semi-truck I thought it was going to crash into it. The vehicle slammed on the brakes at the last minute and began traveling behind the semi-truck onto Interstate 95. While merging onto Interstate 95 the vehicle attempted to accelerate to get in front of the semi-truck and merge right as the merge lane was ending. The vehicle then slammed on the brakes again and got behind the semi-truck. The vehicle then changed lanes to the left, accelerated, and was going approximately 115-120 MPH in a posted 70 MPH zone. I was traveling approximately 120 MPH in an attempt to catch up to the vehicle once again. The vehicle then broke abruptly almost crashing into a vehicle traveling directly in front of it. At this point, I had caught up and conducted a traffic stop.

I approached the driver`s side window and came in contact with the driver who was later found to be offender, Nicole Palmer Scialpi; W/F; 07/18/1992. Scialpi looked at me through the rolled-up window and just smiled at me. She then rolled the window down and I immediately observed she had bloodshot glossy eyes. I asked her why she was driving so fast and she said she was sorry and didn`t know if she was going that speed. I asked her where she was coming from and she advised work. While I was at the driver`s window I smelled an odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage coming from inside the vehicle. I asked her where she worked and she said Indiantown and Jupiter. I asked what store or restaurant and Scialpi said "Indiantown like Jupiter". I asked again and she said "Ruth Chris". I asked if it was on Indiantown Rd because there is no Ruth`s Chris on W Indiantown Rd, and she said yes. I questioned her more about the location and she said "I just go to Indiantown Jupiter to get there". Ruth`s Chris is located on Breakwater Ct off of N US Hwy 1.

I asked Scialpi how much she had to drink tonight and she said "a drink" when she went out after work and she`s "not like that drunk". I asked Scialpi to step out of her vehicle. I asked Scialpi where she went after work and she advised she went to a bar, had one drink, and she doesn`t think she was "intoxicated enough to not drive". When I was talking to Scialpi outside of her vehicle I smelled an odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage coming from her breath. Scialpi advised she was at "Dive Bar".

Based on my observations I asked Scialpi if she would perform Standardized Field Sobriety Tasks so I know she would be safe to drive home. Scialpi consented to perform the tasks.

Due to our unsafe location on the side of Interstate 95, I advised Scialpi we would relocate to perform the tasks and she consented. I advised Scialpi she was not under arrest and placed her in the back right seat of my patrol vehicle unhand cuffed. I transported Scialpi to 6812 W Indiantown Rd (Shell Gas Station). Upon arrival, I read Scialpi Miranda Warnings and she advised she understood.

As a result of the Standardized Field Sobriety Tasks, Scialpi gave me many clues that indicated impairment (see DUI probable cause affidavit for further information regarding specific indicators of impairment).

I placed Scialpi under arrest. I placed handcuffs on her, double-locked them, and placed her in the back seat of my patrol vehicle.

After placing Scialpi under arrest, I requested at roadside that she provide a lawful sample of her breath for the purpose of determining the alcohol content. Scialpi refused to provide a sample of her breath. I advised Scialpi of Implied Consent and she refused to provide a sample of her breath a second time at 02:15 hours.

As a result of the above investigation, Scialpi was charged with driving under the influence, normal faculties impaired pursuant to Florida State Statute 316.193(1)(A).
