PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

VICTIM INFORMATION CONFIDENTIAL PER MARSY`S LAW

On 08/05/2025 at approximately 2231 hours, I responded to 3200 North Ocean Drive, Room 2202, in reference to a caller advising that his girlfriend had stabbed him with scissors and that she was still in the room.

Upon arrival, I made contact with a white male and a white female, who were accompanied by a young juvenile male. It was later determined that the white male was the caller, identified as Cody M. Marx. The female identified herself as Paige P. Holwood, and advised that the juvenile male was her son, Max Holwood.

All parties were separated so that I could determine what occurred and why police were called.

Statement from Paige Holwood:

Paige stated that she had been in the hotel room throughout the day with her son and Cody. Earlier in the day, Cody allegedly started an argument with her regarding possible infidelity. Paige stated she did not know where Cody got that idea from. According to Paige, the argument escalated, and she told Cody she wanted him to leave the hotel room. Cody did not leave and continued arguing. Paige said she then locked herself and her son in a room, isolating themselves from Cody. Paige stated that Cody got in the room and at some point Cody got on top of her and held her down, but she was able to get him off by threatening to call the police.
Paige added that she called the police between approximately 2100 and 2200 hours but claimed her phone was taken from her. She stated she later got it back by unknown means but did not call the police back, despite numerous attempts being made to contact her, which allowed the matter to continue escalating.

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

When asked how Cody sustained his injury, Paige stated that Cody is known to self-harm and may have injured himself. She later added that when they became physical with each other, things may have gotten out of hand and Cody could have been injured during the struggle. She denied ever using any object to cause the small cut to Cody`s left eyebrow.

Statement from Cody Marx:

Cody stated that he was in the room with Paige when she started an argument with him for an unknown reason and threw a drink on him. Cody said he tried to avoid further issues, but when Paige continued, he attempted to go into their shared room to retrieve his phone, which Paige prevented him from doing. Cody stated that when he finally retrieved his phone, Paige escalated the altercation and attacked him with scissors, cutting him on the left side of his face, causing bleeding. He then called 911 for assistance. Cody advised that he recorded part of the altercation. In the recording, both Cody and Paige can be heard engaged in a verbal dispute. Cody is visible with a fresh wound above his left eye, and at one point Paige can be heard stating that she cut him, while also yelling at him to get out of the room.

It is unknown what occurred before the recording began, as the recording started after the initial incident. However, based on statements and the available recording, it was determined that Paige was the primary aggressor in the incident, though Cody also contributed to the escalation. Cody was examined by medical personnel and did not require stitches. The wound was treated with medical adhesive to prevent further injury. There were no scissors that could be found and recovered when at the scene.

Paige was placed under arrest without incident and transported to the Riviera Beach Police Department for processing, and then to the Palm Beach County Jail.

Contact was made with Max Holwood, who advised he did not witness the physical altercation but heard the verbal dispute between Cody and Paige. At this time due Max being 7 years old DCF was called and will respond to aid in finding a safe place for him to stay until his mother is able to get him.
