NARR

On Thursday 09/04/2025, at approximately 1853 hours, I dispatched to the residence at 4515 Main Street #3073, Jupiter, FL 33458, in reference to a domestic disturbance call.

While enroute, I made contact via phone with the caller, Jared Rosenfarb (DOB-02/06/2007 PH#561-886-8593), who stated that he was concerned for his girlfriend, Ava Maline (W/F DOB-09/04/2007), and her safety. Rosenfarb stated that while on the phone with Ava Maline earlier today, she told him that her mother, Pamela Maline (W/F DOB-05/30/1968), was yelling at her.

From this point forward, I will be referring to the members of the Maline family by their first names.

Upon arrival, I made contact with Ava and her twin sister, Chloe Maline (W/F DOB-09/04/2007). Ava was visibly distraught and scared. While on video recorded sworn statement, Ava stated that she and her sister simply had a verbal disagreement with Pamela about her boyfriend (Rosenfarb) ordering food and ride share services to their house. Ava stated that there was no fresh food in the house, and that was the reason why her boyfriend (Rosenfarb) was having food sent. Ava stated that these food deliveries upset her mother and she felt insulted that Rosenfarb was trying to provide for Ava in her house. After further questioning, Ava stated that her sister Chloe and her both woke up late for school this morning, missing their usual ride. They asked Pamela for a ride, but she refused. Ava`s boyfriend (Rosenfarb) sent an Uber ride share service to pick up and deliver both sisters to school. When Ava and Chloe attempted to leave their bedroom door, Pamela was blocking their path and shouting at them. When Ava attempted to pass her, Pamela grabbed her left arm, and pulled her hair. Both sisters ran for the front door as Pamela gave chase. Chloe slammed the front door and Pamela did not follow.

I then spoke with Pamela, who stated that she was upset with both of her daughters in regards to their general disrespect as well as Rosenfarb`s food deliveries. She stated that both Ava and Chloe overspent on her credit cards and showed her a general lack of respect and regard as their mother. I asked, and Pamela agreed to let us see the contents of her refrigerator to confirm that there was fresh food available to eat in the home. After a short delay for Pamela to clear a walking path through her home which was cluttered with boxes due to her being in the process of moving, she invited us in to check the fridge. I confirmed that there were numerous fresh food items in the refrigerator.

It should be noted that during her statement, Pamela voiced concerns for her son, Max Maline (W/M DOB-01/11/2006), who is a student at UCF in Orlando, Florida. Max had made threats of suicide by unknown means to his mother over text this morning. Pamela stated that Max has a history of Baker Act. As a result, I reached out through dispatch to have a local agency perform a wellness check on Max. As of 2127 hours, Deputy Blackburn of the Orange County Sheriff`s Office made contact with Max at his residence at 2901 Einstein Way, Orlando, FL 32826. Max was found in good health, watching football.

As I left the residence and conferred with other officers on scene, Ofc. Raleigh stated that Chloe had claimed Pamela grabbed, struck, and pulled the hair of Ava this morning. With this new information, I asked and Chloe agreed to provide a sworn statement about the incident this morning. Chloe stated that both her and her sister woke up late for school and missed their normal opportunity to get a ride. They asked Pamela for a ride and she refused. Rosenfarb then ordered an Uber ride share service to pick up both Chloe and Ava to take them to school. At approximately 0930 hours, when the Uber arrived and Ava and Chloe attempted to leave their bedroom door, Pamela was at their doorstep, blocking their path and shouting at them. Chloe stated that when Ava attempted to pass Pamela, she grabbed Ava`s arm, and pulled Ava`s hair. After the struggle, both Ava and Chloe ran out of the apartment as Pamela chased them until Chloe slammed the door shut. I took photos of her arm with my department issued evidence phone, of which no visible injuries were observed.

NARRATIVE

I then guided Ava through domestic violence lethality assessment. Based on her answers and my assessment, I believe that Ava is in a lethal situation. I then provided her with a domestic violence brochure for which she signed the receipt and I referred her to a certified domestic violence shelter.

At this time, I called Pamela out into the hallway and placed her under arrest in handcuffs that were checked for proper fit and double locked for safety. I escorted Pamela down the elevator to the patrol car. Ofc. Newman performed a custodial search on Pamela and she was transported to the holding facility at the Jupiter Police Department. Shortly thereafter, Pamela was transported to the Jupiter Medical Center for medical clearance in reference to a preexisting injury on her left foot (lymphedema). Once cleared, Pamela was transported to the Palm Beach County Jail for processing.

Based on the above described investigation, Ava`s statement and Chloe`s corroborating statement, and the totality of circumstances, I have determined that Pamela was the primary aggressor in this incident. I have probable cause to charge Pamela Maline with Domestic Battery - Simple Touch or Strike, in violation of F.S.S. 784.03(1)(A)(1).

All events and interactions were recorded on my department issue BWC and I do not claim this written report to be a verbatim account.
