PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The undersigned certifies and swears that he/she has just and resonable grounds to believe, and does believe that the above named Defendant committed the following violation of law.

The Person taken into custody . . .

[ ] committed the below acts in my presence.

[ ] confessed to _____ admitting to the below facts.

[ ] was observed by _____ who told _____ that he/she saw the arrested person committ the below acts.

[X] was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation.

On the 27 day of January, 2025 at 13:23 (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.)

On January 28, 2025, I was assigned this case in the Detective Bureau. The original case was obtained by Officer Hall (577). The following is a summary of his report.

On January 27, 2025, at approximately 1:23 p.m., Officer Hall responded to [redacted] Florida in reference to harassing phone calls between a girlfriend and ex-boyfriend. Officer Hall`s body worn camera was utilized during the investigation.

Officer Hall met with the victim, Seneca Reynolds, and she provided him with a sworn verbal statement. According to Reynolds she broke up with her now ex-boyfriend, Patrick Koenig, on January 4, 2025, at approximately 10:00am. Reynolds went on to say that since the breakup Koenig has called her approximately five hundred times from the date of the breakup to yesterday`s date, January 26, 2025. When asked, Reynolds stated that she told Koenig she no longer wanted him in her life, and he was not welcome on her property. Reynolds advised that within the past three days Koenig has called her phone more than one hundred times from unknown phone numbers with no caller ID.

Reynolds was able to show and play a few of the phone messages she received from Koenig to Officer Hall. In one the messages Koenig referred to Reynolds as a "lying peace of shit" that was cheating on him with a new man. In another message Koenig stated he knew Reynolds` location and asked why she was doing this to them. In another message Koenig stated, "I am going to fucking ruin you."

Reynolds also added that she believes that Koenig has been tracking her. Reynolds advised Officer Hall that she found a black tracker under the rear driver`s side fender of her Range Rover. Reynolds told Officer Hall she suspected she was being tracked by Koenig when she received e-mails from Koenig telling her he knew where she was. On Friday January 24, 2025, Reynolds was having dinner at Lenora`s located at 5320 Donald

Ross Rd, Palm Beach Gardens when she received an e-mail from Koenig asking her "how`s dinner at Lenora`s."

On Saturday January 25, 2025, Reynolds went to Jet Aviation Airport to pick up a business client. Reynolds advised that Koenig made reference about the airport in an e-mail. Reynolds stated to Officer Hall that she has hundreds and hundreds of phone calls and messages from Koenig. Reynolds showed Officer Hall her phone and scrolled through some of the unknown calls. There were numerous calls from unknown numbers on Reynolds phone. Reynolds added that the unknown phone calls would match up to the messages that Koenig left on her voice mail box.

Based on the investigation, Reynolds ended her relationship with Koenig, and she has made it clear to Koenig that she wants nothing to do with him. Koenig contacted Reynolds numerous times using a blocked phone number. Whenever Koenig contacts Reynolds he seems upset and leaves derogatory messages on her voice mail box.

Reynolds is in fear for life due to threats made to her by Koenig over the phone in which he stated he would put a bullet in her head. At this time, Reynolds was unable to provide Officer Hall with that exact message but stated the messages were stored on her phone.

Officer Hall retrieved and inspected the tracker found on Reynold`s vehicle. The tracker was black and rectangular with the following information: USB SIM ID:7028908366. Officer Hall advised he did not observe a model or serial number on the tracker. Officer Hall stated he observed that there was a sim card inside the tracker and the tracker was magnetized. The tracker was taken as evidence and placed into the cell phone locker to prevent remote erasing.

Officer Hall advised he tried making contact with Koenig via phone but was unsuccessful in reaching him.

On February 4, 2025, I made contact with Reynolds via phone. Reynolds was able to provide me with multiple voicemails, and text messages from Koenig, all of which have been uploaded to evidence.com. Reynolds also advised that a temporary restraining order was issued to Koenig, and that a court hearing is to take place over the next week or so. As of today`s date, since being served with the order, Reynolds has not heard from Koenig. I was able to examine the tracking device and concluded that it is a GAO Tek GPS-763 tracker. I have reached out to GAO Tek to inquire on how to obtain any information from the tracker, or who may have purchased it.

On February 5, 2025, subpoena requests have been sent to the State Attorney`s Office, for AT&T, to obtain phone records for Reynolds and Koenig.

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On February 10, 2025, it was found that the tracker was not from GAO Tek, and at this time, it is unknown who manufactured the GPS device. I made contact with Domingo, in security at The Boca Raton resort, who advised he will check camera footage from January 26, 27, and 28, to see if Koenig`s 2018 GMC truck comes to or on property. Per Reynolds she was there on the aforementioned dates for business. Koenig was not aware of this and sent text messages questioning why she was at the resort.

On February 11, 2025, Domingo reached out to me via phone. Domingo advised that Koenig`s truck was not valeted or found on their license plate readers. Furthermore, Koenig also had no reservation to be on property either. Due to Koenig more than likely not physically being there, but still knowing where Reynolds was, without being previously told, leads to a conclusion that the tracker located on Reynolds vehicle, belonged to, and is under the control of Koenig.

On February 13, 2025, a subpoena request was sent to the State Attorney`s Office for Amazon.

On February 19, 2025, I received all requested subpoenas. The subpoenas were completed and sent to their respective institutions.

On March 3, 2025, I received the subpoenaed documents from AT&T for both Reynolds and Koenig. Along with the subpoenaed documents from Amazon.

Upon review of the AT&T documents, there are multiple days, at both "normal" and "uncommon" times, that Koenig`s phone is calling Reynolds. There are also times where Koenig`s phone can be seen calling Reynolds` juvenile daughter, at "uncommon" times, multiple times. Per the records, Koenig`s phone, calls Reynolds phone 681 times, on January 26, 2025, from 1:58 a.m., to 7:51 a.m. Only a few of the calls have a duration of more than a couple of seconds. The longer calls are more than likely voicemails that Koenig is leaving.

Upon review of the Amazon subpoenaed documents, nothing of evidentiary value was located. All documents from AT&T and Amazon have been uploaded to the case file.

On March 4, 2025, I sent a request to Emnify, the company that produced the SIM card located in the tracker, to obtain information on what is needed to possibly identify the company the SIM card was issued to, in order to identify the manufacturer of the tracker.

On March 4, 2025, I received a response from Steven Joseph, Lead Counsel, for Emnify. Joseph advised of the information needed and email to send the information to.

On March 5, 2025, I sent an email to the email that Joseph advised, with the information requested. It should be noted that upon the email correspondence being sent, I received an email stating the email could not go through due to my email not being in the organization. Shortly after, I did receive an automatic email from an Alexander Schebler from Emnify, stating he was out of the office until Thursday. At this time, it appears the email has been received. I also emailed Joseph again, to advise of the auto reply, to see if another email would be better.

On March 10, 2025, I received some correspondence from Emnify. The email advised the SIM card was issued to GPSNVISION. A query on this business advised that the company name is GPSNVISION. An email has been sent to GPSNVISION to inquire on how to send them legal process.

On March 13, 2025, I received some correspondence from GPSNVISION as to where to send legal process. On April 2, 2025, a subpoena was sent to GPSNVISION via certified mail.

On April 23, 2025, I received the documents subpoenaed from GPSNVISION. Upon review of the documents, the tracking device that was recovered, does come back to Koenig. Included in the documents, was a list with documented "logins" and "logouts" of the tracking system associated with the tracker. The logs do start in April of 2024, and from the first date to August 18, 2024, the tracker appears to be used sporadically. As of January 24, 2025, the tracker is consistently used until February 1, 2025. It should be noted that during these days is when Reynolds received multiple text and emails from Koenig, asking why she was at certain locations. Per Reynolds, Koenig had no prior knowledge of her going to these locations at those times.

On April 28, 2025, I made contact with Reynolds via phone, to update her on the case status, as well as obtain additional information due to documents I have received, particularly the phone records. Reynolds advised that her juvenile daughter, which was confirmed with phone records, was also called an enormous amount of times, and threatened by Koenig. Reynolds advised that she and her daughter were in a vehicle with Koenig, and that Koenig advised he would drive the vehicle off a bridge and kill all of them, due to him being upset with Reynolds. Reynolds again stated that both she and her daughter are afraid of Koenig and do believe that he would hurt them if he was given the chance.

On May 5, 2025, I made contact with Koenig via phone. During the conversation, Koenig advised that Reynolds placed the GPS tracker on her own vehicle. When asked why Reynolds would do that, Koenig advised due to her purchasing the vehicle from another male, and Reynolds not being able to afford the vehicle. Koenig stated that she did this in case someone came and took the vehicle, she could track it. I then asked if that was the case, why did the tracker come back to him, along with a log of activity showing someone was tracking the vehicle during the time frame after they broke up, but with very little activity before the breakup. Koenig advised he did not know, and that any other questions can go through his attorney. Koenig then ended the conversation.

On May 6, 2025, I made contact with Reynolds via phone. Reynolds was advised on the information I obtained from Koenig, regarding the tracking device on her car. Reynolds, again, advised that she did not place the device on her car. Reynolds explained that a customer of hers wanted an interior design job completed by a certain time. Reynolds explained that she was booked and could not complete the job. Reynolds and the customer then came to an agreement, which included the purchase of her vehicle as payment for the job. Reynolds advised that at no time did she place a "tracker" on her car or have a reason to do so.

On May 6, 2025, I sent subpoena requests to the State Attorney`s Office for AT&T and Comcast, for information on the IP addresses used in tracking the GPS tracker that was found on Reynolds` Range Rover.

On May 27, 2025, I received a response from Comcast. Per Comcast the IP address 75.144.218.133 has a subscriber name of Gilbane Boat Works, which is located at 19137 SE Federal Hwy, in Tequesta, Florida. Per the information received from Comcast, the IP address does have a direct connection to Koenig, as the above listed address is listed as Koenig`s home address on his Florida Driver`s License.

On June 4. 2025, I received a response from AT&T. Per the AT&T response, IP address 107.77.215.66, is an individual IP address and the timeframe requested is not saved. AT&T also advised that they do not have individual IP records for this address.

Based on the above facts and circumstances, with the on-going course of malicious conduct, instilled fear, and due to documentation showing access to the GPS device, use of the GPS device as well as acknowledging locations of Reynolds whereabouts, that were not known by Koenig, probable cause exists for the arrest of Patrick Koenig for the following:

1 count of installation/use of tracking device, for violating F.S.S. 934.425(2)(5).
1 count of Stalking, for violating F.S.S. 748.048.
