NARRATIVE

Upon arrival, I made contact with the victim, [redacted]. Immediately, I observed Van Sant`s right arm was bleeding and asked if he wanted medical attention. Van Sant declined medical attention and proceeded to tell me what happened.

The following is a synopsis of Van Sant`s sworn statement. Please see my body worn camera for a full account of what Van Sant stated. Van Sant stated he got into a verbal argument with his girlfriend, Paula Slavinski, in the driveway of their residence. The two were arguing over Van Sant talking to their female neighbor. During the verbal argument, Slavinski picked up a chair and threw it at Van Sant. After the chair was thrown, Slavinski walked inside the residence and the argument ended. The chair is what caused the laceration to Van Sant`s arm. In addition, the chair hit Van Sant in the face. The two have been in a relationship for the last two years and live together at the residence. Van Sant`s injuries were photographed by Delray Beach Police Department Crime Scene.

I spoke with Slavinski who provided a sworn statement as well. The following is a synopsis of the conversation, please see body worn camera footage for Slavinski`s full statement. Slavinski originally stated that nothing occurred between the two then stated the two argued at her nephew`s residence down the street. Slavinski finally stated that the two had got into a verbal argument over Van Sant speaking to a female. Later in the argument, a chair was thrown.

Due to the facts stated above, probable cause exists to charge the defendant, Paula Slavinski, with one count of simple battery in violation of F.S.S. 784.03(1A1).
