The undersigned swears there are reasonable grounds to believe that the above named defendant in Hillsborough County, Florida, did:
On the aforementioned date and time, at [redacted] the defendant actually and intentionally struck the victim on her stomach against her will, utilizing Christmas accessories.

The defendant took apart the Christmas tree and began dragging pieces of it outside the front door. While doing this, the victim's foot got tangled within the decorative lights attached to the tree. The defendant continued to drag the tree, even after the victim told him she was being dragged with it.

The victim sustained minor lacerations on her right forearm from broken ornaments as she was dragged. The victim also complained of pain in her upper right leg.

The defendant and the victim are in a domestic relationship, as they are married, live together as a family, and share children in common.

The victim positively identified the defendant as the person who committed the offense. The affiant confirmed the defendant's identity via HCSO booking photograph 2022-23745.

Pursuant to Florida Statute §92.525 and under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have read the foregoing document and the facts stated in it are true to the best of my knowledge. For Notices to Appear, I also certify that a complete list of witnesses and evidence known to me is attached.
