PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The undersigned certifies and swears that he/she has just and reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe that the above named Defendant committed the following violation of law.

The Person taken into custody . . .

☐ committed the below acts in my presence.

☐ was observed by _____ who told _____ that he/she saw the arrested person committ the below acts.

☐ confessed to _____ admitting to the below facts.

☒ was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation.

On the 25 day of October, 2026 at 21:54 (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.)

On 10/25/2026 at approximately 2108 hours, I responded to 1361 W Palmetto Park Rd. in reference to a report of an intoxicated driver. A Taco Bell employee notified Boca Raton PD dispatch that a female customer driving a red Buick in the drive-through appeared intoxicated and was acting confused.

Upon arrival, I met with Officer Merice who was standing with a female later identified by her Florida Driver License as Roshelle Anderson. While observing their conversation, I observed that Anderson had glassy, bloodshot eyes and was significantly confused about where she was. Anderson told Ofc. Merice that she was trying to pay "you guys" and pointed to him. Ofc. Merice asked who she meant by "you guys", to which Anderson replied, "you guys, the bank," and gestured to Ofc. Merice again. It should be noted that Ofc. Merice is a road patrol officer for the Boca Raton Police Department and wearing a full police uniform with his badge clearly displayed. Ofc. Merice's marked patrol vehicle was parked approximately 10 feet from Anderson and easily visible. It should also be noted that I detected the odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage emanating from Anderson's breath and person while she spoke with Ofc. Merice.

I then initiated my own conversation with Anderson, during which she advised the following: When asked, Anderson stated she was currently located near Palmetto Park Rd. and trying to get to her mother's residence. When I asked where her mother lived, she gestured southeast and said "two stones". I tried to clarify what Anderson meant by "stones", but she did not explain. I then asked her what city she was in, to which Anderson replied, "Florida." When I reminded her that Florida is a state, not a city, Anderson stated she was in "Palm Beach" and confirmed that she meant the City of Palm Beach. Anderson had driven here from Donald J. Trump International airport after the flight she was on landed approximately 2 hours prior to our encounter. Anderson stated she takes "Xanax" (alprazolam) for anxiety and she had taken it approximately 3 to 4 hours ago.

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

I then met with Ofc. Merice separately from Anderson. He advised me of the following: He had found Anderson's vehicle, a red Buick Encore GX bearing FL license plate PHG2F, parked in its current position and still running. As the vehicle matched the description provided to Dispatch by the caller, Ofc. Merice approached the vehicle and observed Anderson exit from the driver's seat, which in addition to her being the only occupant observed, led him to believe that Anderson was the person in actual physical control of the vehicle. Ofc. Merice had also met with the caller, who advised that Anderson had tried to pay for her food using tampons.

I returned to Anderson and asked her to confirm the date and day of the week, to which she told me it was October 22nd or 23rd and it was Thursday or Friday. I then informed her that I could smell the odor of alcohol on her breath. Anderson initially denied consuming any alcohol and stated she had just been with her mother but then confirmed that she had drank "a little bit." I asked her to clarify what she meant by that, to which she told me that she had consumed a shot of an unknown alcoholic beverage, but that she could "show it to me in the car." She did confirm that the liquor was brown in color and that she had consumed it shortly before being approached by the police, approximately an hour ago. Anderson did not have any physical injuries, is not diabetic, and has no problems with her eyes that cannot be corrected by glasses or contacts.

Based on my observations of Anderson, I was concerned that she had been operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol and/or a chemical or controlled substance to the point that her normal faculties were impaired. I then requested Anderson to participate in voluntary field sobriety tasks to dispel my alarm that she is under the influence of alcohol and/or a chemical or controlled substance. Anderson advised she would participate in the tasks.

The first task was the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus. After explaining the instructions to Anderson, I asked her if she understood. She replied yes. I then asked if she had any questions, and she replied no. I noticed equal pupil size and equal tracking in both eyes. During this task, I had to remind Anderson to keep her head straight multiple times. I observed lack of smooth pursuit in both eyes, distinct and sustained nystagmus in both eyes, and onset of nystagmus prior to 45 degrees in both eyes. I also observed vertical gaze nystagmus. During the exercise, Anderson was swaying and I could smell a strong odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage emanating from her breath and person.

Officer Harrison also conducted the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus exercise on Anderson. She advised me that she observed lack of smooth pursuit in both eyes, distinct and sustained nystagmus in both eyes, and onset of nystagmus prior to 45 degrees in both eyes, as well as vertical gaze nystagmus.

The next task was the Walk and Turn. I guided Anderson over to a solid white line on a flat surface that was well lit. I offered Anderson the opportunity to remove her sandals, to which she refused. I then asked Anderson to stand in the starting position and not start until I told her to while I explained and demonstrated the task. Anderson advised she understood the task and did not have any questions. While I was issuing the instructions, Anderson began the task and after returning to the starting position, did not maintain her balance while listening to the instructions. During the task, she took more than 9 steps, did not touch heel to toe on all steps, stopped walking to ask me what to do next, stepped off the line, used her arms for balance, and did not turn properly.

The next task was the One Leg Stand. I explained and demonstrated the task. Anderson stated she understood the instructions and did not have any questions. Anderson began the exercise when instructed. During the exercise, I observed Anderson failing to look at her raised foot and did not keep said foot parallel to the ground. Anderson also failed to count in the manner I instructed, put her foot down twice, was swaying while balancing, and used her arms to balance.

The next task was the Finger to Nose (L-R-L-R-R-L). I explained and demonstrated the task. Anderson stated she understood and did not have any questions. Anderson showed me she knew which hand was her right and left, what her index finger was, and where the tip of the nose was. On the first left, Anderson tipped her head forward and initially missed the tip of her nose, touching her left cheek, then did not return her hand to her side. On the first right, Anderson tipped her head forward and again did not return her hand to her side. On the second left, Anderson did not return her hand to her side until prompted. At this point, Ofc. Harrison clarified the instructions again with Anderson and reminded her to return her hand to her side automatically after touching her nose. On the second right and third right, Anderson tipped her head forward. For the duration of the task, Anderson was swaying.

The next task was the Rhomberg Alphabet. I explained the instructions to Anderson, and she replied she understood the instructions and did not have any questions. Anderson stated she could recite the English alphabet from A-Z without skipping any letters and without singing it. Anderson completed the task but began to sing the alphabet during her first attempt. Ofc. Harrison clarified the instructions again with Anderson and the tone in which the task should be completed. Anderson confirmed she understood. During her second attempt, Anderson began to sing the alphabet again.

The next task was the Rhomberg Balance exercise. Ofc. Harrison explained the instructions, and Anderson advised she understood and did not have any questions. Anderson estimated 30 seconds in 1 minute and 11 seconds. She was swaying the entire time.

Based on her performance on the tasks and my observations, I developed probable cause to arrest Roshelle Anderson for being in actual and physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol and/or a chemical or controlled substance. I placed her into handcuffs, checked for tightness and proper fit. Ofc. Harrison conducted a search of her person before placing her into my marked patrol vehicle.

I then conducted an inventory of Anderson's vehicle. Ofc. Harrison discovered a bottle of Hard Truth Rye Whiskey (375ml, 50% alc/vol) in a box located on the passenger seat of the vehicle. The bottle was mostly empty with some brown liquid still inside. Photographs of the bottle were taken, and the bottle was submitted to the Boca Raton PD Evidence unit. Inside the vehicle were also several prescription bottles of Alprazolam with Roshelle's name on it. Additionally, there was a prescription bottle with Roshelle's name on it containing "Benzonatate 200mg" that read "May cause drowsiness. Alcohol may intensify this effect. Use care when operating a car or dangerous machinery." Lastly, there was another prescription bottle with Roshelle's name on it containing "Adderall 30mg" that read "May cause dizziness. Do not operate a vehicle, vessel." Photos of these were captured on body camera. Lastly, the vehicle keys were located in the center console.

I then transported Anderson to BRPD booking. Ofc. Almeida responded as the BAT operator. A 20-minute observation was conducted on Anderson, and then she was brought into the BRPD BAT room. I asked Anderson to provide a breath sample. Anderson stated she would provide a sample. Anderson provided two breath samples of 0.222 and 0.221.

I then read Anderson her constitutional warnings from a pre-printed card. Anderson advised she understood her constitutional warnings. Post-Miranda, Anderson advised the following: She was operating a motor vehicle, driving from her residence to her mother's house. She was encountered by police in the city of Boca Raton. She started driving at approximately 2000 hours. The date at the time of her first encounter with police was 10/28 or 10/29 and it was Friday. She consumed approximately half a bottle of white wine at home, starting to drink at 1200 hours and having her last drink approximately 2 hours before being found by police.

Roshelle Anderson is being charged with DUI (Enhanced) with a BAC over .15 pursuant to F.S.S. 316.193(4).

Anderson was issued a DUI citation (#ANY9H2E). Her vehicle was towed by Priority Towing. Anderson was transported to Palm Beach County Jail without issue.
