NARRATIVE

[redacted] stated he received multiple text messages from [redacted] W/F 5-18-2010, stating he needed to pick her up from [redacted] home. [redacted] Sara Nestro W/F 10-21-1978, and [redacted] are [redacted] and [redacted] also texted that [redacted] hit her. [redacted] then drove to S. Nestro`s home to pick up [redacted]

I then spoke with [redacted] She stated she and [redacted] W/F 12-26-2014, were staying at [redacted] home since yesterday. Today, she was sitting in the kitchen, when S. Nestro began to get upset and verbally argue with her. [redacted] believes [redacted] was upset she did not get her anything [redacted] During the argument, S. Nestro began to pretend to tickle and grab [redacted] on her stomach and sides. [redacted] then began to record [redacted] yelling at her. In the video recording, you can clearly see S. Nestro reach out to [redacted] and attempt to grab/snatch her cellphone out of her hand. [redacted] then stated [redacted] pushed her out the front door and locked her outside. About fifteen minutes later, S. Nestro unlocked the door and [redacted] went upstairs to her bedroom. While in her bedroom on the second floor, [redacted] was laying in her bed and S. Nestro entered her room. There is not a lock on the bedroom door. [redacted] began to again record S. Nestro as she was yelling at her. In the video, I can clearly see S. Nestro grabbing and throwing [redacted] pillow at her, then in the video I can see S. Nestro grab [redacted] school bookbag and throw it and hit [redacted] in the left side of her head. [redacted] told me her bag was full of school items and heavy. S. Nestro then grabbed a metal chair and threw it at her. [redacted] said [redacted] then pushed her outside onto the second-floor balcony from the bedroom and locked the door. [redacted] said both of the balcony doors were locked and she was not able to reenter the home and her cellphone was now out of battery. She believes she was left outside for approximately twenty minutes. While being left outside, S. Nestro began to punch and break the door blinds on the balcony doors from the inside. Eventually S. Nestro unlocked the balcony door to let [redacted] back in the home. [redacted] then plugged her phone in to text [redacted] to pick her up.

It should be noted, earlier and through out the day, there have been extreme weather conditions to include heavy rain, thunder storms, hail and extreme heat.

Officer Anderson checked [redacted] for injuries and advised me she saw obvious scratches on her lower belly on the front and left side of her stomach.

I then spoke with S. Nestro. at her home, I asked her what occurred earlier with [redacted] She immediately got upset that officers were talking to [redacted] and were going to scare her. She then took her cellphone and demanded the conversation be recorded. I explained to her all the officers on scene had body worn cameras and we were not there to frighten any children. I again asked what happened with [redacted] She stated, "nothing". I then asked if she grabbed or threw anything at [redacted] and she stated no. I then asked if she locked her outside of the second-floor balcony and she then said, [redacted] went outside on the balcony and she followed her out and that was it.

Officer Anderson spoke with [redacted] see her supplement for further. Based on the above information, video evidence and physical evidence, I find probable cause to charge S. Nestro with Domestic Child Abuse. I placed S. Nestro in handcuffs which I double locked and checked for tightness. I placed S. Nestro in the rear of my patrol vehicle and Officer Anderson stayed with S. Nestro while I took photos of [redacted] bedroom. In [redacted] bedroom, I observed the bed to be disheveled, a metal officer chair next to the bed and broken door/window blinds on the patio doors as well. I then observed the balcony doors which had functional door locks. I walked outside on the balcony and the other set of doors were also locked, there was no other way off
