[ ] Marsy's Law CVI
FL. Const. Art.1 § 16(b)

On June 27, 2025, at approximately 12:42 PM, I responded to a domestic disturbance call at 217 South K Street in the City of Lake Worth Beach, Palm Beach County, FLorida, 33460.

Upon my arrival, I activated my body-worn camera and made contact with the defendant/complainant, Shannon Saluk. She appeared visibly upset and had visible bruises on her arms. Shannon explained that she and her husband, John Saluk, had been experiencing marital problems for the past six months, which had escalated into physical altercations.

Shannon recounted that the previous day, she had returned home from work around 4:45 PM and sent John a text message suggesting they talk after her 5:30 PM session. John's response was hostile, leading to an argument. During the altercation, Shannon attempted to enter their shared office to retrieve work items, but John repeatedly pushed her out, causing her to fall onto a couch and break a mirror. Shannon admitted that, in the heat of the moment, she impulsively threw a bag of John's cigars on the ground.

John was located in the backyard, where he was working on a pipe. He appeared cooperative and provided his account of the events. John claimed that Shannon had a history of physical aggression, which included throwing his belongings and damaging property. He stated that the argument began when Shannon interrupted his Zoom call, threw his cigars, and tried to take his laptop. John admitted to positioning himself between Shannon and his belongings to prevent further damage but denied physically assaulting her.

After advising John of his Miranda rights, I confronted him with the marks on Shannon's arms and showed him a photograph of her bruises. He clarified that he was trying to protect his property and that Shannon had pulled his shirt off, scratched him, taken his laptop, and tried to push past him multiple times, which he believed may have resulted in the bruises on her arms.

Both parties had visible injuries: Shannon had bruises on her arms, while John had a scratch on his left forearm. I documented their injuries with photographs. Shannon declined medical assistance from fire rescue.

Given the conflicting accounts and visible injuries on both parties, I concluded that both Shannon and John were involved in a physical altercation. I read Shannon her Miranda rights and took a sworn statement from her. She reiterated her account of the events, including her admission of throwing John's cigars and taking his laptop.

Based on the totality of the circumstances, including the visible injuries on both parties and their conflicting statements, I determined that Shannon was the primary aggressor in the incident. I informed Shannon of her arrest for domestic violence and placed her in handcuffs. Shannon became emotional and pleaded not to be taken to jail, expressing concerns about her professional license.

Based on the investigation, I established probable cause that Shannon Saluk violated Florida Statute 784.03(1a1) for simple battery.
