Probable Cause

On Saturday, October 24th, 2026, at approximately 0235 hrs., I was dispatched to Talon Hall regarding a domestic disturbance at Florida Atlantic University's Boca Raton campus.

Upon arrival, I met with Caleb Freeman (F601686917000), who informed me that his girlfriend, Sophie Amaya (A617075327000), returned to his dorm room after staying at a club all night.

Freeman provided a sworn statement captured via my body-worn camera stating that Amaya spilled water on his floor, and then he told her to leave the room. Amaya started becoming aggressive and destroyed his personal computer gaming setup, valued at around 2000 USD. Amaya then pushed and kicked Freeman inside the dorm room, and Freeman created space by extending his arm towards Amaya. Amaya continued to throw water at Freeman inside the dorm room. Freeman asked Amaya to leave several times, and Amaya eventually did.

Amaya provided a statement advising that she entered his room after a night out at the club; Freeman became angry towards her after she spilled water on his floor. Amaya then stated that she grabbed Freeman's computer gaming keyboard and computer itself and threw them onto the ground. Amaya also stated that they both started grabbing their own personal items and claimed Freeman broke the chain on Amaya's purse.

Due to the damage to Freeman's property, I determined that Amaya was the primary aggressor and arrested Amaya for Dating violence (F.S.S. 784.046) and criminal mischief (F.S.S. 806.13).

Amaya was handcuffed (double-locked and checked for tightness) and placed in Ofc. Davis's marked patrol vehicle #1471. Amaya was checked for weapons and contraband before being placed in the rear of the vehicle, which yielded negative results.

Amaya was transported to Palm Beach County Corrections Facility without further incident.
