NARR

On Monday June 12, 2023 at approximately 0259 hours, I was dispatched to 748 Dogwood Road in North Palm Beach in reference to a domestic disturbance.

Upon arrival, a woman could be heard screaming and cursing inside the home. I then made contact with Andrew

NARRATIVE

Buckley Lofton DOB: 11/29/1970 W/M, who stated that his wife (Tanya Lynn Lofton DOB: 02/06/1974 W/F) returned home around 0215 hours and began arguing with him. Tanya and Andrew have been having marriage problems. Andrew has made comments about wanting a divorce and Tanya gets upset. Tanya began throwing her arms at Andrew and then she bit his upper lip and caused bruising on both forearms.

I then spoke with Tanya who stated that she threw a room divider at Andrew because they have been married for 18 years and he wants a divorce. She then explained that she bit him because he pinned her against the wall.

Andrew stated that he held her to prevent her from hitting him.

I then spoke with both children that were in the home at the time and they said they heard their mom yelling and then what sounded like the argument turning physical.

Based on my investigation and the totality of the circumstances, Tanya Lofton was in violation of Florida State Statute 784.03(1)(A)(1)- Simple Battery, where she intentionally was hitting Andrew and bit his upper lip because she was intoxicated and upset that he wants a divorce.
Tanya was searched and placed in hand cuffs, which were double locked and checked for tightness prior to being placed in the back of my marked patrol vehicle.

Andrew completed an affidavit of prosecution as well as a Domestic Violence Risk Assessment form which triggered contact with a victims rights advocate. (Juanitia #379)

Department of Children and Family services advised that they would be making a report.

Tanya was wearing a red T-shirt, gray sweatpants and sandals.

The back seat of my patrol vehicle was checked both before and after transporting Tanya to the Palm Beach County Jail. Tanya was turned over to the Palm Beach County Jail without incident.

No other information at this time.
