NARR

On December 4, 2025 at approximately 1506 hours, I was dispatched to 210 Bears Club Drive Jupiter, FL 33458 in regards to a suspicious incident in progress. North Com advised that a female was yelling on the phone, "Please help me, this man hurt me" and "why did you let him attack me" while landline with dispatch. Upon my arrival, the female was still landline with dispatch, and not listening to their instructions to leave the residence. Officers then knocked on the door and made contact with Alan Freij (W/M 10/21/1965) who advised that he was not the one that called and directed us to the back room.

I then made contact with the caller, Alexa Blizzard (W/F 6/9/1994), who was carrying a lot of bags full of personal belongings and appeared to have just stopped crying. She was exhibiting nervous behavior such as shaking. I also immediately observed redness on Blizzard`s chest and left upper hand. It should be noted that while speaking to her, every time she would hear a noise or another officer walking up, she would stop talking and appear to be frightened, asking if it was her boyfriend. Blizzard advised the following during her sworn statement:

Blizzard is in a yearlong dating relationship with Timothy Doran (W/M 2/20/1969), who she lives with. Blizzard stated that Doran asked to use her phone to which she declined. Doran then began to chase Blizzard through the house and to the back left bedroom. Blizzard stated that Doran grabbed her hair and pushed her into the wall. Blizzard stated that Doran was attempting to gain her cellphone during this, and then pushed her onto the bed with his hands on her chest. I observed redness on Blizzard`s chest, above her breasts. There was also an approximately 2in by 2in red mark on her upper left shoulder blade area, as well as a cut to her left middle finger. Blizzard was evaluated by PBCFR (Run: 25-415512) for chest pains and declined transport. Photographs were taken of her injuries and uploaded to Evidence.com.

I then spoke to Freij who advised the following during his sworn statement: Freij stated that he is a driver / employee of Doran and is currently staying in the left bedroom (where this incident is alleged to have occurred). Freij stated that Blizzard and Doran came into the room arguing, however did not observe anything physical. Freij stated that he did not recall seeing Blizzard end up on his bed, despite being in the room. I then observed the bed which was unmade with sheets disheveled and a part of a vacuum cleaner on it.

I then spoke to Doran who advised the following during his sworn statement: Doran stated that he needed to use his phone and Blizzard`s phone for Zoom court and to access files that Blizzard has access to. Doran stated that he attempted to grab the phone when Blizzard pushed him. Doran stated that he attempted to obtain the phone again, which caused them to both start grabbing each other. This incident then stopped and Doran began his Zoom Court. While speaking to Doran, I noted two red abrasions to the left ring finger. These wounds appeared fresh and Doran stated that he burnt himself the other day.

I again spoke to Blizzard, who had mascara running down her face from crying, and she stated that she did not know that Doran burnt himself and did not know if this occurred during the incident. I then administered a domestic violence lethality assessment to Blizzard which did not trigger the referral protocol.

Based on the on-scene investigation, victim statement, physical injuries consistent with her statements, and totality of the circumstances, I believe that probable cause exists to arrest and charge Timothy Doran with Domestic Simple Battery, contrary to FSS 784.03(1). Doran did actually and intentionally touch or strike Blizzard against the will of Blizzard and Blizzard was in a dating relationship with Doran, contrary to Florida Statute 784.03(1).

Doran was placed into handcuffs that were double locked and checked for proper spacing before being transported to the Jupiter Police Department for arrest paperwork to be completed and later the Palm Beach County Jail. All photos of injuries were uploaded to Evidence.com. Blizzard was issued a domestic violence brochure, which she signed. The above incident was captured on body worn camera and is not purported to be
