DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROBABLE CAUSE AFFIDAVIT
PALM BEACH COUNTY

On the 4 day of February 2023 at 0809 hours

Subject: Ylatalo, Vilhelmiina Emilia DOB: 06-05-1986 Case #: 23-001638

Charge Description: Simple Battery (domestic) Statute #: 784.03

[redacted]

Personal Contact:

Narrative:
On 02-04-23, at approximately 0809 hours, Officer Harris and I, responded to [redacted] Boynton Beach, Palm Beach County, Florida in reference to a domestic disturbance.

Upon arrival, we met with Vilhelmiina Ylatalo, outside in the parking lot. Ylatalo stated that she was involved in a dispute earlier today with [redacted] at his residence. Ylatalo stated that the police responded to investigate (reference BBPD case # 23-001624). Ylatalo stated that she then left [redacted] residence, but had to take an Uber home because she could not locate her vehicle keys. Ylatalo stated that she responded back to [redacted] residence this morning to retrieve her personal belongings and vehicle keys, which she believed [redacted] intentionally kept. Ylatalo stated that she called the police to standby while she retrieved her belongings.

We then met with [redacted]. [redacted] stated that he and Ylatalo got into a verbal argument earlier today because she was intoxicated and wanted to drive. [redacted] stated that the police were called and later responded. [redacted] stated that Ylatalo lost her vehicle keys and accused him of taking them. [redacted] stated that Ylatalo then took and Uber home and came back this morning to gather her belongings. [redacted] stated that when Ylatalo arrived, she knocked on his door and when he opened it, she walked in. [redacted] stated that Ylatalo then grabbed his neck with her hand and made the comment "give me my fucking keys. I'm tired of this". [redacted] stated that Ylatalo kept demanding her keys which he did not have. [redacted] stated that he told Ylatalo to let go of his neck because her nails were digging into his skin. [redacted] stated that he got away from Ylatalo and ran outside to call the police.

[redacted] had minor abrasions/scratches on both sides of his neck, approximately 6 inches long, consistent with someone grabbing his neck and being scratched by finger nails. [redacted] was not seriously injured and declined further medical treatment. Photographs were taken of [redacted] injury, via a body worn camera, and placed into BBPD Evidence for future reference.

I then spoke with Ylatalo again and inquired about the marks around [redacted] neck. Ylatalo denied ever going into [redacted] apartment and claimed she never put her hands on him.

There were no independent witnesses.

Based on the above information, probable cause exists to charge Ylatalo with one count of Simple Battery (domestic), pursuant to F.S.S. 784.03. Ylatalo was then placed into custody. Once in custody, Ylatalo began to make threats to kill herself and became combative. Ylatalo attempted to hit her head against the wall, but was prevented from doing so. BBFD responded due to Ylatalo's threat to harm herself and claiming that she was having a panic attack. Ylatalo was restrained by BBFD and continued to make threats to kill herself. Ylatalo had a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage emanating from her breath which intensified as she spoke. Ylatalo bit her wrists several times and had to be sedated. Ylatalo was then transported to Delray Medical Center for treatment and evaluation. Ylatalo was medically cleared from Delray Medical Center and turned over to the Palm Beach County Jail.

Soto was provided a Victim's Right Pamphlet and a Domestic Violence Brochure. An Exemption from Public Records Disclosure Form and Marsy's Law Confidentiality Form (invoked) was signed by Soto.

This incident was conducted utilizing a body worn camera.
