NARRATIVE

For brevity and clarity purposes I will refer to [redacted] as "Victim" and William as "Offender".

The victim was placed under oath and provided his sworn statement.

The victim stated that the offender had been under the influence of alcohol and wanted to discuss his recent disciplinary incidents from school. The victim stated the offender came into his room aggressively which is normal when he gets drunk, and when he refused to speak with him and asked him to leave, the offender became irate and started coming at him. The victim stated he felt the offender wanted to try to fight him due to the manner he approached him.

The victim stated he pushed the offender away from him as he got close and asked him to leave.

The victim stated the offender then taunted him at which time he started crying and clenched his fists and pleaded with the offender to leave his room.

The victim stated the offender `head butted` him, which was later clarified to be the offender posturing up toward him and aggressively pressing his forehead to the victims, however the victim felt this was intended as a head butt.

The victim stated he then grabbed the offenders arms and tried to prevent him from hitting him, at which time the offender grabbed the victim and wrapped his arms around his neck and pulled him to the ground.

The victim stated the offender had his arm wrapped around his neck and was squeezing tighter as he begged him to let go, and felt he could not breathe. The victim stated when the offender would not let him go and he started to panic due to losing his airway, he punched the offender in the side of his ribs and in the lower side of his face.

The victim stated at this time [redacted] Tammi Kelly DOB 10/22/88, came into the room and was able to verbally convince the offender to let go.

The victim stated he then tried to leave with a back pack, which the offender grabbed off of him and began throwing punches in the victims direction.

The victim stated he fell onto his bed to avoid the punches, however the offender was able to land three or four punches to the middle left side of his back on his rib cage.

NOTE; photographs were taken promptly on scene of the welts that were left on the victims skin in the area of the alleged strikes, which appeared to me in the shape of a fist with fingers. Through my investigation it was gathered that the victim suffers from dermotagraphia, which is a condition in which when his skin is scratched or smacked or rubbed against, it becomes welted and risen but usually goes away within 30 minutes; to which they did go away during my time on scene. These photographs were uploaded to evidence.com

The victim also had scrapes on his upper right shoulder which he advised was caused by the brick wall in his room when he was pushed against it during the scuffle.

NARRATIVE

The victim stated he was able to at some point after the strikes get up and leave the house and call the Police.

I made contact with the offender, who I quickly gathered was under the influence of what I believe to be alcohol due to the smell coming from his mouth, his repetitive statements and slurring of words.

I immediately read the offender his Miranda Warning and then placed him under oath. The offender understood and still wished to speak with me.

I asked the offender how much he had to drink tonight, which he advised hes had a few drinks.

The offender told me over and over again how the victim is a problem [redacted] and that he is the aggressive one and that he was punched in the face and that he never punched [redacted]

The offender was unable to give me an actual sequence of events and kept reverting back to how [redacted] is constantly in trouble and is a violent felon.

I did not observe any injury or marks to the offenders face, I did see the same scrape marks on his upper right shoulder and his left hand was also bloody, which he could not advise where it came from, however suggested it may have been from the brick wall.

When asked, the offender did advised he had the victim in a choke hold on the ground and refused to let go because he did not want him to get up and beat him up. The offender also advised he did place his forehead on the victims forehead during their heated discussion because he was frustrated that his own [redacted] was refusing to talk to him about the problems he has been causing.

Kelly, who was the only other subject inside of the home was very admittedly intoxicated, therefore did not provide a sworn statement. Kelly did however advised she and the offender have had a lot to drink and had been drinking all night, but advised she did not witness any of the physical violence but could hear the yelling and crying taking place. Kelly at one point advised she saw them `wrestling` on the ground and was "trying to defend the victim" by telling the offender to let go and once he did she tried to talk to the victim to console him.

After speaking with all three subjects, given the injuries present, and the corroboration of the sequences of events and lack of clarity from the offender, at this time I placed the offender under arrest for child abuse, in handcuffs, double locked and checked for spacing.

FSS 827.03 (2c) Cruelty Toward Child.

The offender was transported to LPD holding for processing until later transported to PBCJ where he was lodged.

BWC available.
