PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

[ ] Marsy's Law CVI
FL. Const. Art.1 § 16(b)

I, Deputy Post, was dispatched to a domestic battery at [redacted] in unincorporated [redacted] The caller stated his girlfriend had made his hand bleed, bit him, threw an unknown object, and threw a knife at him. Upon arrival I met with the caller, Jarrod Brown, outside the residence who stated his girlfriend, Yvette Naranjo, was inside the residence currently and that she had been throwing items and destroying the yard and garage. I visually saw items disturbed around the front yard and in the garage.

Jarrod went on to state Yvette threw an unknown item at him and struck him in the back of the head. He also stated during the struggle she had bit him and caused a bleeding abrasion on the top of his right hand. Visible injuries were seen on his right hand and back of his head. Jarrod continued to state that at one point, Yvette was holding a kitchen knife and threw it at him from the front door as he was standing outside. He stated the knife hit the back of his foot where the sneaker heal was. The knife was seen laying near the front door entrance partially laying on the walkway and partially in the dirt. Jarrod was visibly intoxicated.

I went to the garage door entrance and knocked multiple times with no answer. With the indication of an altercation between the two parties, I opened the door and made multiple announcements for Yvette inside the residence with nothing heard. I entered the residence to check on the welfare of Yvette who's last known location was inside. While inside the residence, I heard moaning and mumbling from inside a locked bedroom door. I unlocked the door and continued to announce my presence as a Deputy and asking for Yvette. The moaning and mumbling became louder and was coming from the bathroom. I opened the bathroom door and saw Yvette laying on her back in the shower without any pants or undergarments and wearing a soaking wet shirt. She was visibly intoxicated. I assisted Yvette out of the shower and detained her for safety purposes.

Yvette was given the chance to place pants on herself before exiting the residence. I read Yvette her Miranda Warnings and began asking questions about the assault and battery. Yvette stated she was never involved in a struggle with her boyfriend and was getting ready for bed. When I added specifics to the alleged altercation, she stated she never got into a fight and had come back from dinner with her friends and was going to bed.

Based on the statements made by Jarrod, the knife laying outside where Jarrod stated the knife was thrown, and the visible injuries on Jarrod, I find probable cause to charge Yvette Naranjo with Aggravated Assault with a deadly weapon w/o intent and simple battery (domestic). Yvette was placed under arrest at 8:40pm for the above charges. Yvette was transported to the district 7 station to be searched by a female before being transported to the County Jail without further incident.
