If followed the vehicle and observed it swerving to the right of its lane, in and out of the lane numerous times. The vehicle stopped at the intersection of N Dixie Hwy and E Yamato Rd in the left through lane on N Dixie Hwy. The traffic lights thread green for southbound traffic, but maintained a red arrow for the left turn lane. The vehicle accelerated, and ran the redlight. I activated my lights and conducted a traffic stop in the south parking of 500 NE 51st St. (Checkers). Ofc. Bissoon and I exited our patrol vehicle and approached the vehicle. As we approached, the vehicle began to move again. Ofc. Bissoon instructed the driver to stop the vehicle, place it in park, turn it off, and remove the keys from the ignition. Ofc. Bissoon informed the driver of the reason for the stop. Ofc. Bissoon then asked the driver, identified as Ana Gore by her FL DL, for her driver's license. Gore initially could not located her driver's license, but eventually found it in her wallet. While Gore was looking for her license, Ofc. Bissoon noticed another Floria Driver's License in Gore's wallet. Ofc. Bissoon asked Gore what the license was, to which Gore replied it belonged to her sister. When asked, Gore could not identify the name of the person on the second driver's license or the listed address. Ofc. Tyson and Ofc. Chriswisser responded as my backup. While speaking with Gore, Ofc. Bissoon noticed the smell of an alcoholic beverage emanating from Gore's breath and that her eyes were glossy and bloodshot, and that her speech was sturred. Ofc. Ofc. Bissoon and I exited our patrol vehicle and approached the vehicle. As we approached, the vehicle began to move again. Ofc. Bissoon instructed the driver to stop the vehicle, place it in park, turn it off, and remove the keys from the ignition. Ofc. Bissoon informed the driver of the reason for the stop. Ofc. Bissoon then asked the driver, identified as Ana Gore by her FL DL, for her driver's license. Gore initially could not located her driver's license, but eventually found it in her wallet. While Gore was looking for her license, Ofc. Bissoon noticed another Florida Driver's License in Gore's wallet. Ofc. Bissoon asked Gore what the license was, to which Gore replied it belonged to her sister. When asked, Gore could not identify the name of the person on the second driver's license or the listed address. Ofc. Tyson and Ofc. Chriswisser responded as my backup. While speaking with Gore, Ofc. Bissoon noticed the smell of an alcoholic beverage emanating from Gore's breath and that her eyes were glossy and bloodshot, and that her speech was slurred. Ofc. Bissoon asked Gore if she had been drinking tonight, to which she replied she had. Based on his observations, Ofc. Bissoon asked Gore to step out of the vehicle. Ofc.
