On Sunday, November 5, 2017 at 1:56am, I was dispatched to the area of 11910 Kew Gardens Avenue, Palm Beach Gardens, in Palm Beach County, FL 33410 in reference to a domestic battery. While responding, dispatch advised that a black pick-up truck transporting the subjects was leaving the scene. Sergeant LeBlanc #363 saw a black pick-up truck in the general area of the incident and initiated an investigatory traffic stop. Sergeants

LeBlanc and Beath #334 got out with a [REDACTED] and Bailey Theel (passenger, sitting in the back seat). Both showed signs of physical altercation with bruises and blood on faces and hands.

Upon my arrival, I made contact with Aaron Goodwin, the eyewitness. Aaron provided a sworn-oral statement advising the following:

Aaron came downstairs from his apartment to walk his dog when he heard yelling coming from across the parking lot. The yelling came from the tennis court parking lot, across from the apartment complex Arron lives in. Aaron initially was approximately 100 yards to the west of where the battery took place. Aaron heard a male and female yelling. Aaron stated the parking lot was illuminated, and was able to see a male and female sitting on the tailgate of a black pick-up truck. Aaron saw both the male and female hitting each other, and could hear the sound of skin making contact with skin. After hearing a thud sound, which Aaron described as something hitting metal, he didn't hear the female yelling anymore. Aaron got into his vehicle to drive closer as he called the police. By the time Aaron got to the gate of his apartment complex, he saw the black truck pull out of the parking lot, make a right onto Kew Gardens and another right at Valencia Gardens. Approximately a minute later, Aaron saw a marked police car and informed the officer of the direction the black-truck went.

I drove over to the parking lot adjacent to the tennis courts. I saw a broken tumbler, empty Bud-Light beer can, blood drops and pools of blood spanning approximately 75 feet on the north side of the parking lot. In the pool of blood at the stop-bar, I observed what appeared to be a (woman's size) right bloody footprint. I also observed a large pool of water, indicating the vehicle sat for an extended period of time in the parking lot. I documented the scene via my department issued body worn camera.

I went to the scene of the traffic stop where I met with Bailey and [REDACTED]. Both were read their Miranda Warnings from a pre-printed card by Sergeant Beath.

I observed Bailey to have bruising, scratches and small lacerations across her face. In addition, her left nostril was bloody, and her left foot appeared to have been cut between her toes. Bailey's hand was also bloody. While speaking with Bailey, I could detect the odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage coming from her breath. According to Officer Leskow #429, Bailey refused emergency medical services assessment.

Post Miranda, Bailey stated that she suffered all her injuries at a bar (unknown name or location) when she got into a fight with "some people." Bailey eventually stated that the people she fought with were her high school friends, but could not remember their names. Bailey continuously used terms as "frisky," "immature," and "rambunctious," to describe her behavior at the bar however, she did not further explain her actions. Bailey attributed her behavior at the bar due to her level of intoxication. When asked how [REDACTED] became injured, she stated he must have been when he tried to "pull her back" from the fight. Bailey stated [REDACTED] did not fight anyone at the bar. When asked about the scene in the parking lot, Bailey denied any physical fighting at that scene and denied getting physical with [REDACTED]. When asked why they were in that parking lot, Bailey stated she didn't want [REDACTED] to drive all the way to her residence, so she told him to pull into the parking lot so she could walk home. According to Sergeants Beath and LeBlanc, details of Bailey's story varied each time she was interviewed.

I observed [REDACTED] to have bruising and scratches across his face. [REDACTED] hands were also bloody and had a cut on his right cuticle. While speaking with [REDACTED] I noticed his eyes were watery and glassy. I could also detect the odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage coming from his breath. According to Officer Leskow, [REDACTED] refused emergency medical services assessment.

Post Miranda, [REDACTED] stated that while at Johnny Mango's (71 E Indiantown Road #805, Jupiter, FL 33477) a slight altercation occurred with another patron over a UFC fight. [REDACTED] stated he received a scratch across face when the argument turned physical, the male who hit him was apologetic and did not cause any further incident at the bar. [REDACTED] and Bailey stayed and continued watched the UFC fight. After the UFC fight, [REDACTED] and Bailey left to bring her home. Bailey wanted to go to his house, but [REDACTED] does not want her coming around. [REDACTED] stated that Bailey's parents don't want him coming over to their house. Bailey began to hit and punch herself in the face and got out of his truck at the parking lot. Both began to argue and got into a lover's quarrel over going to each other's residences. In frustration, Bailey threw her Tervis tumbler at his truck, making a loud thud noise. This action caused her Tervis to break, consistent with the broken cup at the scene. [REDACTED] stated he didn't know Bailey was bleeding and denies a physical fight in the parking lot. [REDACTED] also denied Bailey getting into a fight at the bar and didn't know she was bleeding.

[REDACTED] truck was searched incident to arrest. Blood smears were observed on the outside of truck, on the passenger door handle and driver side. The windows had condensation on them and the dashboard had a residue on it, from some type of liquid being thrown on it. There were blood smears on the passenger floorboard and Bud Light cans in the back seat, the same type of can found at the parking lot. [REDACTED] truck was towed by Kauff's Towing to their tow yard located at 4701 East Avenue, West Palm Beach, FL 33401.

Based on my investigation, I determined that the blood located at the scene is consistent with heavy nose bleed that Bailey had from her left nostril; the bloody footprint at the scene consistent with the blood on Bailey's right foot; the Bud Light can consistent with the cans found in the back seat of the truck and broken Tervis consistent with Bailey's statement. In addition, the inconsistent accounts from [REDACTED] and Bailey, coupled with the sworn eyewitness statement, I find probable cause to charge both [REDACTED] and Baily Theel with Simple Battery, in violation of F.S.S 784.03(1)(A)(1). It is important to note that [REDACTED] and Bailey have been [REDACTED] for the past two-years. Both were provided Victim Rights pamphlets and Victim Notification forms. [REDACTED] and Bailey were transported to the Palm Beach County Jail without incident.

BWC used.
