NARRATIVE

Trouble". The caller who was later identified as Linda Phillips told Police Communications that her husband had hit her and that she wanted to speak to a police officer. When I arrived on scene, I spoke to Linda, who reported that she and her husband went out to dinner at Trevini Ristorante in the Town of Palm Beach. Linda reported after dinner she and her husband went to their apartment located at 354 Chilean Avenue apartment 6C. Linda reported that her husband wanted to go to sleep and was lying in bed. Linda reported that she wanted to watch television and had the TV on. Linda reported that Hadley requested her to turn off the TV, during which point a verbal argument ensued. Linda reported that Hadley then slapped her with an opened hand on the right side of her face two times. Linda then reported that she left the apartment and walked over to 227 Australian Avenue. I observed Linda`s right cheek to be red and starting to swell.

Linda was reluctant to give any information about where the incident occurred or her husband`s whereabouts. Sgt. Rothrock was later able to obtain Hadley`s cell phone number. Hadley willingly came to the scene shortly after.

Hadley reported Post Miranda, that he did not strike Linda in the face and that he only grabbed her by the wrists in an attempt to calm her down during their argument. Hadley reported that Linda has a temper and sometimes loses control of herself. Hadley reported that during the verbal argument, Linda was flailing her hands and pulled the sheets off him while he was lying in bed. Hadley reported that while Linda was flailing her arms around he grabbed her by the wrists to try to calm her down.

Based on the above information, I arrested and charged the defendant with 1 count of Simple Battery (Touch or strike), pursuant to F.S.S. 784.03(1A1). Audio and in car video was conducted on scene.
