Charge 5: F.S.S. 914.22(1e) Tampering with a Victim

On 11/05/2018 I responded to 6121 Town Colony Dr Apt 724 in reference to a domestic disturbance. Upon arrival I made contact with Mirella Tassiopoulos.

Tassiopoulos advised that she and her boyfriend, Jay Rappaport, were involved in a verbal dispute earlier in the evening. She said that during the dispute, Rappaport had taken possession of her cellphone. She said that her children, Nicholas Tassiopoulos (1-17-03), Alexandra Tassiopoulos (12-11-04), and Christine Tassiopoulos (9-16-09) were at the apartment at the time. She stated that she did not want her children involved in the incident, so she told them to pack up their belongings and took them to her ex-husband`s house. Tassiopoulos advised that she kept her daughter`s cellphone in order to make phone calls since Rappaport had taken her phone from her. She said that when she returned to the residence, Rappaport approached her vehicle in the parking lot and continued to dispute with her. Tassiopoulos said that while she was in the driver`s seat of the vehicle, Rappaport then opened the front passenger door of her vehicle, reached inside, squeezed the hand holding the phone, and removed the phone from her hand. She said Rappaport then smashed the phone by throwing it on the ground. Tassiopoulos advised that she screamed for help and activated her vehicle`s alarm in an attempt to grab somebody`s attention. She said she then ran into the apartment and called 911 from the phone Rappaport had previously taken from her which was now located in the bedroom. Tassiopoulos advised that Rappaport entered the apartment as she was on the phone with BRPD. She said Rappaport was aware she called 911 so he snatched the phone from her hand once again and covered her mouth so that she could not communicate with the call taker. She said she ran away from Rappaport as he chased her through the living room. Tassiopoulos advised that Rappaport was able to catch up to her and kicked her in the stomach twice as well as in the upper thigh once. Tassiopoulos said Rappaport then left the area in his white Infiniti Q50 (FL tag IIRN48). She described Rappaport as a W/M approximately 5`11" and 180lbs, wearing a red t-shirt and blue jeans.

While conducting the investigation, Tassiopoulos advised that the bathroom in the master bedroom was in disarray and claimed that several pieces of her jewelry were missing from the jewelry box on top of the sink. Tassiopoulos described some of the jewelry as a white gold chain link bracelet ($1,000), a set of two Taffani & Co. white gold rings ($1,500), a gold ring with approximately 20 diamonds ($1,200), a gold ring with a large green stone ($600), a silver Bulgari necklace and ring set ($500), and a gold ring with a red stone ($300). She also described her phone as a black iPhone X with a clear case and an ocean wallpaper.

Tassiopoulos suffered a bruise to her upper left leg. She said she felt pain in her hand as well as her stomach and face. Tassiopoulos` injuries were photographed and marked as evidence. The scene was also photographed, and the pictures were marked as evidence. Pieces of the broken cellphone were located near Tassiopoulos` vehicle and the damage appeared to be consistent with the phone being thrown to the ground. Photos of the broken phone were collected and marked as evidence. Additionally, Tassiopoulos stated that her vehicle suffered damage from what she believed to have been Rappaport kicking the front passenger door, however, she advised that she did not witness him kicking the door. Ofc. Fong collected a sworn video statement from Tassiopoulos (see supplement for further).

Due to Tassiopoulos advising that Rappaport said he was going to kill himself during their argument, BRPD dispatch was able to ping Rappaport`s phone to a nearby location. BRPD units searched the area and located Rappaport`s vehicle and conducted a high-risk traffic stop. Tassiopoulos was transported to the scene for a show up and she positively identified Rappaport as the offender.

I advised Rappaport of his constitutional rights and he agreed to speak to me. Rappaport advised that he and Tassiopoulos were involved in a verbal dispute earlier in the evening, but his story was very inconsistent. He claimed that he did not snatch any phone from Tassiopoulos` hand at any time and said that the dispute was never physical. Rappaport also denied smashing the phone on the floor. Rappaport denied kicking Tassiopoulos` vehicle and kicking Tassiopoulos in the stomach or in the leg.

During an inventory of the vehicle, subsequent to Rappaport being arrested and the vehicle being towed, several pieces of jewelry matching the descriptions given by Tassiopoulos were located in the trunk of Rappaport`s vehicle. He advised that the jewelry located in the trunk of his vehicle did belong to Tassiopoulos but said that it was inside of his toiletry bin all along and denied stealing it from the residence. A phone matching the description given by Tassiopoulos was also located inside of his
