☒ was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from (described) investigation.

On the 12 day of JANUARY 20 19 at 2030 ☐ AM ☒ PM

Within the jurisdiction of Palm Beach County, specifically at the intersection of in the unincorporated area of West Palm Beach, Florida on 01/12/2019 at approximately 1920 hours I was dispatched to 7870 Blackwood Ln in the unincorporated West Palm Beach, Florida 33467 in reference to a female stating that her ex-boyfriend keeps texting her and threatening to kill her.

Upon arrival I made contact with a white female who identified herself as Traci Lloyd. Lloyd stated she has been separated from her ex-boyfriend John Pallerino for a few months. Approximately a month ago, Pallerino started texting her and sending her threatening messages. Lloyd stated she had made several reports with law enforcement to document Pallerino's behavior. See Case numbers; 19-002601, 1
On 01/12/2019 at approximately 1775 Hours Lloyd received a text message from Pallerino stating the "You're never going to have work, so what are you going to do. You either find your heart and give in and make us work, are you die not from me but you just died cuz you're miserable." Lloyd stated Pallerino called American Express earlier today, pretended to be her and cancelled two of her business credit cards. Lloyd then stated that Pallerino went to Walgreens and printed pictures of her threatening to ruin her life and her business with the pictures.

Lloyd then stated Pallerino followed her from work. He has also placed a tracker in her vehicle, which had been reported to law enforcement. Lloyd did not have a protection order in place, but she stated she was going to court on Monday to take care of that. Lloyd showed me several messages from different phone numbers that Pallerino used to contact her.

While on scene I noticed a silver pickup truck drove in front of Lloyd's residence approximately four to five times. Lloyd also received a few text messages from Pallerino while I was on scene. One of the messages that Pallerino sent to Lloyd stated that he saw the police in front of her residence and there was nothing police could do to save her. Lloyd showed me the text messages and she was visibly shaking as she was afraid for her life. Lloyd stated Pallerino had followed her several times and she was afraid that he could hurt her. She was convinced he would do it again tonight, now that he knew she contacted police.

Pallerino contacted the Palm Beach County dispatch and pretended to be a neighbor complaining about the patrol vehicle parked on his yard. This is believed to be Pallerino because he texted Lloyd and advised her that he contacted PBSO emergency phone line and complained about the officers parked their patrol vehicle on her yard. It should be noted that Pallerino was not a neighbor and my patrol vehicle was parked on the street near Lloyd's residence. I canvassed the area looking for Pallerino's vehicle, however I did not see Pallerino's vehicle in the neighborhood. Cpl. Villar #24746 provided Lloyd with a phone number in case Pallerino showed up to the residence.

Approximately 2113 hours Cpl. Villar received a phone call from Lloyd's sister stating that she was in her vehicle driving East bound on Lantana and she noticed the same Silver Nissan following behind her. Lloyd stated she looked at the driver and it appeared that the driver of the Silver Nissan was Pallerino. I was parked in the area of Jog Road and Lantana Road typing this report when the call was received. Upon locating Lloyd's vehicle, I observed a Silver Nissan Frontier bearing Florida tag #1YVC95 driving behind Lloyd's sister's vehicle. I advised dispatched of my observation and that I was behind the suspect vehicle at Jog road and Lantana Road. We proceeded east behind the suspect vehicle as he was behind the victim's vehicle.

I noticed the Silver Nissan made a left turn on Haverhill as I waited for another patrol unit prior to initiating a motor vehicle stop. Once other patrol units arrived in the area of Haverhill road and Naverre Road, I initiated a stop of the Silver Nissan. I observed the driver to be John Pallerino. I gave Pallerino instruction on getting out of his vehicle, Pallerino complied. Cpl. Villar read Pallerino's his Miranda warnings, from a pre-printed card, to which he stated he understood his rights. I placed Pallerino in the back of my patrol vehicle and transported him to the PBSI County Jail. The victim completed a sworn affidavit with the aforementioned statements. This was turned into the district office.

The defendant, Pallerino did willfully, maliciously, and repeatedly follow, harass Traci Lloyd, contrary to Florida Statute 784.048(2).
