D.U.I. PROBABLE CAUSE AFFIDAVIT

ON THE 29th DAY OF September 20 18 AT 2:54 ✓ AM PM

SUBJECT: Kayla Wantuch CASE NUMBER: 18-004799

AGENCY: Jupiter Police Department ARRESTING OFFICER: Craig Yochum # 383

PERSONAL CONTACT

DRIVING PATTERN: ACTUAL PHYSICAL CONTROL (PHYSICAL EVIDENCE OR STATEMENTS PUTTING DEF. BEHIND WHEEL OF VEHICLE)
On the aforementioned date at approximately 0223 hours, I was traveling south on S.R. 811 (S Alternate A1A), just south of S.R. 706 (W Indiantown Rd.). I observed a black 2010 Ford Focus bearing FL tag # ATQB14 traveling south on S.R. 811, in the center lane. I observed the vehicle drift out of its lane, to the left, and into the inside southbound lane of S.R. 811. I continued following the vehicle and activated my vehicle's dash camera. I activated my Raptor RP-1 vehicle-mounted radar unit in moving mode and received a digital speed readout of 60 MPH in a posted 50 MPH speed zone. The radar unit emitted a clear and constant audio doppler tone which was consistent with a vehicle traveling the aforementioned speed. There were no other vehicles traveling within my radar unit's operational range at the time. I also observed the vehicle make two quick lane changes, traveling from the inside southbound lane, over the center lane, and into the outside lane of S.R. 811. The vehicle utilized it's turn signal for this maneuver. I maintained constant visual contact with the vehicle and activated my overhead emergency lights and siren to conduct a traffic stop. The vehicle traveled off the right side of the road, into the grass, and came to an abrupt stop in the grass.

OBSERVATION OF DRIVER:
I approached the driver side window of the vehicle and observed there was one sole-occupant of the vehicle sitting in the driver seat. When I approached the vehicle, I identified the driver of the vehicle to be Kayla Wantuch (w/f; 03/20/1995) by her valid Class E FL Learner License. I observed Wantuch had bloodshot glassy eyes and I detected the slight odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage on her person, which intensified as she spoke. When I requested Wantuch provide me with her license, registration, and proof of insurance, Wantuch advised her father was a police officer and she was unsure of where the registration and insurance paperwork were, as this was not her vehicle. Wantuch removed several papers from the glove compartment and sorted through the papers, providing me with an expired registration. Wantuch was unable to provide me with an updated registration or insurance card.

DRIVER'S STATEMENTS:
Wantuch advised she was following her friends home. There were no vehicles I observed in front of Wantuch at the time of the stop. Wantuch advised she was coming from Johnny Mango's (local bar in Jupiter) where she consumed 2 alcoholic beverages. Wantuch advised she did not have anything to eat at Johnny Mango's. Wantuch began stating over and over again that her father was going to kill her and began crying. Wantuch continued her mood swings (crying, then becoming more compliant) throughout the duration of the SFSTs.

ODORS:
Slight odor of unknown alcocholic beverage on Wantuch's person, which intensified as she spoke.

GENERAL OBSERVATIONS

SPEECH: Slightly slurred, Wantuch immediately began crying when I made contact with her.

ATTITUDE: Mood swings, Crying, Emotional, Upset, Cooperative

CLOTHING: Black long-sleeved shirt, White ripped pants, black sandals

MEDICAL/OTHER: Anxiety and Depression. Wantuch advised she was not taking any medications.

ROADSIDE TASKS

HORIZONTAL GAZE NYSTAGMUS:

- [x] LT EYE-LACK OF SMOOTH PURSUIT
- [x] RT EYE-LACK OF SMOOTH PURSUIT
- [x] LT EYE-DISTINCT & SUSTAINED NYSTAGMUS AT MAX. DEVIATION
- [x] RT EYE-DISTINCT & SUSTAINED NYSTAGMUS AT MAX. DEVIATION
- [ ] LT- EYE-ONSET OF NYSTAGMUS PRIOR TO 45 DEGREES
- [ ] RT- EYE-ONSET OF NYSTAGMUS PRIOR TO 45 DEGREES

Other Observations:
I observed Lack of Smooth Pursuit and Distinct and Sustained Nystagmus at Maximum Deviation in both Wantuch's left and right eyes. I observed Wantuch was swaying slightly back and forth and side to side during the task.

WALK & TURN

Wantuch removed her sandals prior to beginning the exercise. Wantuch had trouble standing in the starting position, with her right foot in front of her left touching heel-to-toe, for the Instructions Stage. Wantuch took her front foot off the line twice, was reminded to keep her feet in the starting position for the duration of the instructions once, but eventually stood with her feet side by side for the remainder of the instructions. Wantuch took three steps down the line, missing heel-to-toe on steps 2 and 3, and using her arms for balance. Wantuch stopped while walking, raised her arms to her face and began crying, advising "just take me to jail." Wantuch advised she was not refusing to complete the tasks but complained about the slant (superelevation) of the roadway. Wantuch began walking again, missing heel-to-toe on every step and using her arms for balance. Wantuch took a total of 23 steps down the line before I stopped her, advising "I took more than 9" when I asked if she remembered how many steps I instructed her to take. Wantuch turned improperly by taking small steps with both her feet to turn around. Wantuch began walking back down the line (arms outstretched like an airplane) and took one step, off the line to the right. Wantuch stopped and backpedaled to where she began, stating "hang on." Wantuch began walking again, missing heel-to-toe on steps 1 and 2, and stepping off the line, to the left, on steps 3 and 4. Wantuch stopped again, raised her hands and began crying. Wantuch leaned up against the rear driver quarter panel of her vehicle and advised she wanted to go home. I concluded the Walk and Turn task at this point.

ONE LEG STAND:

Wantuch raised her right foot off the ground. Approximately 3 seconds elapsed and Wantuch was not watching her foot or counting out loud. I advised Wantuch to watch her foot and count out loud and she placed her right foot on the ground and appeared to lose her balance to the rear. Wantuch raised her foot off the ground again and I began the timer, as she started counting, as instructed. Wantuch swayed to her left, raised her arms to balance herself, and began bouncing on her left leg to maintain her balance. After Wantuch's count of 1007, she placed her foot on the ground. She raised her foot off the ground again, asked me if she should start from where she left off, and continued counting. Wantuch put her foot on the ground again on her count of 1009. Wantuch raised her foot off the ground again, counted to 1012 and lost her balance to the rear, placing her right foot down on the ground behind her left and stumbling to the rear. Wantuch raised her arms to her face again and began crying. Wantuch only counted to 1012 in a timed 30 second period. Wantuch advised she did not want to embarrass her father and I advised Wantuch of her Tayler Warnings. I confirmed her understanding and confirmed she wished to continue, briefly explaining the Finger to Nose and Romberg Alphabet.

FINGER TO NOSE:

Wantuch had to be reminded to keep her eyes closed at the beginning of the task. On the first call of left, Wantuch missed finger-to-nose and touched the middle of her left finger to the tip of her nose and did not return her hand to her side. On the first call of right, Wantuch touched the pad of her finger to the tip of her nose and was slow to return her hand to her side. On the second call of left, Wantuch touched the pad between her first knuckle above the tip of her nose, touching the bridge of her nose. On the second call of right, Wantuch touched the middle of her finger to the same area of her nose. On the final call of right, Wantuch initially raised her left arm but corrected herself and touched the pad of her finger at her first knuckle to the tip of her nose. On the final call of left, Wantuch touched the pad of her finger to the tip of her nose.

ROMBERG ALPHABET:

No significant clues observed during administration of the task. Wantuch appropriately recited the alphabet in the manner instructed and did not skip or incorrectly recite the alphabet at any point.
