PERSONAL CONTACT

NARRATIVE:

On August 25th, 2018 I was dispatched to a domestic disturbance call at 2715 Prairie Ln. Upon arrival to the listed address, I noticed a woman waving me down across the street, later identified as the victim Yaima Alfonso Cainas. When I approached Alfonso I noticed multiple red marks covering her chest. Alfonso was trying to explain what happened but was emotional at this time. Alfonso was able to tell me that the suspect was inside the house that I was dispatched to. As I approached the house a male, later identified as the suspect Kelner Melean, was exiting from the front door. When asked what happened, Melean stated that he and his wife were in a verbal altercation on the front lawn of their house. Melean denied making physical contact with Alfonso during the incident and stated there was a surveillance camera outside that would have captured the altercation on footage. Ofc. Shackelford viewed the footage and confirmed there was a verbal confrontation involving Melean and Alfonso on the front lawn.

I re approached Alfonso to attempt to get more information. Alfonso was able to explain that she and Melean have been arguing constantly in regards to her not being home all day. When Alfonso returned home from her mother's house, Melean began to cause a disturbance outside, which led back inside the house. Alfonso attempted to call the police and allowed the dispatcher to hear what was going on and they continued to argue. Melean did take the phone away from Alfonso. Melean forcefully held Alfonso against the refrigerator and began to make verbal threats saying that if she attempted to contact police again that he would hit her. Alfonso stated when she attempted to break free from Meleans grip he grabbed her chest in an attempt to restrain her causing her shirt to rip. When Alfonso was able to flee the house during the struggle, her sandal broke. Alfonso grabbed Meleans phone before leaving the house and was able to contact 911 from across the street. During my initial contact with Melean, I observed him holding Alfonso's cell phone corroborating her version of the incident. Alfonso stated they have two kids but neither was home at the time of the incident.

Ofc. Shackelford arrested Melean using proper spacing, double locking the handcuffs and transported Melean to PSPD for further processing. Alfonso provided a sworn victims statement and was given a domestic legal rights and remedies packet. Alfonso allowed me to photograph her injuries which will be entered into PSPD evidence.

Alfonso stated when she attempted to go see her mother; Melean followed her outside and began a verbal altercation. Alfonso stated the altercation followed inside the home where she states attempted to call 911 before Melean took the phone away. Alfonso then stated that Melean held her against the refrigerator and made verbal threats stating he would hit her if she attempted to call the police again. Alfonso stated she attempted to escape from Meleans grip he grabbed her chest to get a hold of her again and tore her shirt. Alfonso stated when she fled the house her sandal broke. Alfonso stated she was able to get Meleans phone before leaving the house and was then able to contact 911 from across the street.
