P R O B A B L E C A U S E S T A T E M E N T	On 8/31/17 at approximately 3:57PM, I was dispatched to a suspicious incident at 803 Donald Ross Rd, Juno Beach (Juno Beach), in which two females indicated that they were being followed by a suspicious male in a Ford Explorer. Upon arrival in the area, I observed a red Ford Explorer bearing FL tag BHCK28, parked facing South toward Dunkin Donuts, in the Eastern most parking space in front of 823 Donald Ross Rd, Juno Beach. The front windows of the vehicle were down, and I observed a white male, later identified by FL DL as Kevin J. Falvey (W/M 7/31/64), in the driver's seat of the vehicle, who did not have a shirt on, and was staring toward the windows of Dunkin Donuts, directly at where the two females he had followed were sitting. He did not see me as I passed by him, and continued to look in Dunkin Donuts from his vehicle.
	I went inside Dunkin Donuts to make contact with the complainant, Diana Isabel Urrego Soto (W/F 3/2/64) and her sister, Sandra Marcela Urrego Soto (W/F 11/4/88), who spoke Spanish, and could not understand much English. Detective Jose Nunez ID#247, who is a fluent Spanish speaker, responded to the scene to translate. Det. Nunez interviewed both females and received a written statement from Diana Urrego Soto. Det. Nunez stated the following in his supplemental report: "Diana explained the incident to me in detail and advised the following: On August 31, 2017, when her and her sister left the beach, they walked towards the showers at which time they observed a subject, later identified as Kevin Falvey (W/M 07/31/1964), approaching them in a car. They saw that Falvey was slowing down his speed to observe her and her sister as he drove past. Falvey was driving a red Ford Explorer and subsequently parked in front of their car, in the area of beach walkover 26 on A1A. Upon putting their car into drive and pulling out of their parking space, they observed Falvey also putting his car into drive at which time he pulled out behind them. Diana and her sister then pulled over and parked at the very next beach access to confirm if Falvey was in fact following them, and they observed that he followed their

exact driving trajectory, and also pulled over and parked behind them. Diana advised that they then pulled out of that parking space and continued north on A1A at which time Falvey pulled out and followed behind them. Diana then pulled into Carlin Park and Falvey pulled in as well; still following behind the two sisters. Diana advised that they looped through Carlin as Falvey continued following, at which time they pulled back onto A1A and traveled south on A1A with Falvey still behind their vehicle. Falvey followed closely behind the two sisters, at which time Diana advised they made a right turn onto Donald Ross Road, now traveling west on Donald Ross with Falvey still driving behind their vehicle. Diana advised that upon stopping for the red light at Donald Ross Rd and U.S. Highway#1, Falvey, who was still behind their vehicle, pulled up in close proximity to their car. Diana advised that upon looking in their rearview mirror, they observed Falvey masturbating in his car. Diana advised that she pulled forward at which time Falvey accelerated forward as well, to maintain close proximity to their car. Once the light turned green, the two proceeded through the intersection and turned on their blinker to turn right into Plaza La Mer at which time they observed that Falvey also turned on his blinker to turn right into the plaza. The two then continued forward to another entrance of the plaza and Falvey continued closely behind. At this time they immediately turned into the Dunkin Donuts parking lot (803 Donald Ross Road) and parked in order to go inside and call the police. Diana advised that Falvey parked his vehicle in a parking space on the west side of Dunkin Donuts, and continued looking at her and her sister until police arrived." Due to the close proximity between the parties, the vicitims were both able to see and confirm that the individual that we detained was the suspect. Sgt. Steve Smith ID#280, made contact with Falvey while I was inside of Dunkin Donuts with the victims. Sgt. Smith conducted a dispatch and computer check of Falvey's driver's license, which showed that he has been arrested multiple times in Palm Beach County for Lewd and Lascivious behavior against a child, indecent exposure, and stalking from between 1996-2004. It also showed that he had been a suspect in other cases involving lewd behavior between 1994-1995. I then made contact with Falvey and requested that he exit his vehicle. He was detained in handcuffs, which were checked for tightness and double locked, and placed in the rear caged area of Sgt. Smith's patrol car. I read Falvey his constitutional rights from a department issued card, which he confirmed he understood. When I asked him what he was doing parked where he was, he stated that he had pulled over into the parking lot to text his friends who had texted him. He allowed me to look at his phone to prove to me that he was texting someone and showed me the most recent messages, however, he had not answered either message, even though he supposedly pulled into the lot to text, and had been sitting in his car for a long enough period of time in which he could have replied. When I asked him why he did not answer he could not provide an explanation. When I asked him why I saw him staring into the windows of Dunkin Donuts, he said that he was looking over there because someone he knew that worked at the corporate office had just walked out. However, that was not a legitimate explanation, because he was staring directly into Dunkin Donuts for an extended period of time, even when there was not anyone outside of the corporate office (which is directly North of the Dunkin Donuts).

I also asked Falvey where he was coming from, and he stated that he was driving along the beach road (A1A), and when I asked him if he went in the parks, he stated he did not go into any parks. When I asked him why he followed the females in their vehicle from the beach, North to Carlin Park, then turned around in Carlin Park, and proceeded to follow the females South on A1A, then turned onto Donald Ross Rd, after the females did, then continued to follow them to the Dunkin Donuts parking lot. He stated that he did not know that he was following anyone, even though he admittedly took the exact path of the victim's, to include pulling over, when they did, turning around when they did, and parking in the same location they did.

Falvey was placed under arrest for stalking, and I transported him to the Juno Beach Police Department, where he was placed in the holding cell while I completed the necessary arrest paper work.

Det. Nunez interviewed Falvey at the station, in the holding cell, and Falvey stated that it was an isolated incident and not something he does regularly. When he asked him about his past arrests, he stated that it was a long time ago and he "went to therapy," for it, and stated that things were going better, but then said, but sometimes "things happen". I was also with Detective Nunez at the time of the interview.

Sgt. Smith conducted an inventory of Falvey's vehicle, and observed multiple containers of lotion, a monocular, and a large wad of used paper towels that were stuck together, in the center console. The vehicle was towed from the scene by Kauff's towing.

As a result of the above listed investigation, I have probable cause to believe that Kevin J. Falvey did willfully, maliciously, and repeatedly follow, harass, or cyberstalk, Diana Urrego Soto and Sandra Urrego Soto, contrary to Florida Statute 784.048 (2).
