DUI ALCOHOL OR DRUGS

PROBABLE CAUSE

On August 15, 2017, at approximately 4:30 PM, I was on patrol on Palm Beach County, Florida. I was on my marked patrol vehicle marked FHP unit equipped with overhead emergency lights and external siren. I responded as a backup officer to a traffic stop conducted by Captain Kevin E. Strickland, I-95 (SR-9), northbound, south of 10th Ave on the right shoulder. Upon my arrival, Cpt. Strickland informed me that while conducting the traffic stop he could smell a strong odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage coming from the mouth/breath of the driver of the vehicle he had just pulled over; and the driver responses were slow and looked confused. I made contact with the driver who was outside his vehicle, and asked him for his driver license, and registration. The driver advised that his driver license had been stolen last night, and he did not have the registration with him. I then, asked the driver if he had any other form of ID with his name on it, to which he responded that he had to look and see if he had any inside the vehicle. While speaking with the driver, later identified by name and date of birth as Kirby Brian Varnadore, I could smell a very strong odor of an unknown alcoholic beverage emitting from his mouth/breath that grew stronger as he spoke. Mr. Varnadore started walking towards his vehicle to look for any other type of ID; while walking Mr. Varnadore was unsteady of his feet, and had to hold on to his vehicle to be able to get inside. Mr. Varnadore could not find any other ID in the vehicle so he provided me with his name and date of birth. I confirmed his information through FCIC/NCIC. I asked Mr. Varnadore to step out of the vehicle so we could speak. Mr. Varnadore had trouble getting out of the vehicle, he kept holding on to the vehicle and leaning on it to walk. I then asked Mr. Varnadore if he had anything to drink to which he said yes. I asked Mr. Varnadore what and how much he had to drink before starting driving, and if he had eating anything before or after drinking. Mr. Varnadore advised that he had had approximately two drinks of rum and coke 2 hrs. prior to starting driving, and he had had chicken for lunch. I asked Mr. Varnadore where he was going; he advised to pick up his wife up. Mr. Varnadore responses where slow and incoherent at times; he also would go off topic with frequency. Mr. Varnadore eyes were red and glassy, and he would have difficulty trying to keep them open. Based on my observations, I asked Mr. Varnadore if he would perform some field exercises to make sure he was able to safely drive to which he agreed.

Standardized Field Sobriety Exercises (SFSE):

The area for the following roadside exercises was level hard surface and was free of debris.

Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus:

I advised Mr. Varnadore to stand straight with his feet together and arms down by his side. I asked Mr. Varnadore if he wore any glasses or contacts, he advised he wears contacts. For the exercise I used a pen light with a red tip. I asked Mr. Varnadore if he could see the red tip of my pen, he stated yes. Mr. Varnadore was asked about any current medical conditions, he stated that not with his eyes. I advised Mr. Varnadore to follow the red tip of my pen with his eyes and his eyes only, and do not move his head. I asked him if he understood the instructions I gave him and he said yes.

The following was observed during Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus:

The subject did have resting Nystagmus and dilated pupils.

- LT EYE-LACK OF SMOOTH PURSUIT

- RT EYE-LACK OF SMOOTH PURSUIT

Mr. Varnadore could not follow the red tip of my pen with his eyes. I had to instruct Mr. Varnadore multiple times to keep his head straight and follow the tip of my pen with his eyes only. I had to stop the exercise multiple times because Mr. Varnadore could not keep his head straight and kept on moving it during the exercise. After stopping the exercise multiple times, I advised Mr. Varnadore that he could not keep his head still just hold it with his two hands so it could be easier for him. After trying this, Mr. Varnadore was still moving his head and could not follow the instructions.

I continued the exercise after Mr. Varnadore hold his head. I observed

- LT EYE- DISTINCT AND SUSTAINED NYSTAGMUS AT MAXIMUM DEVIATION

- RT- DISTINCT AND SUSTAINED NYSTAGMUS AT MAXIMUM DEVIATION

- LT EYE- ONSET NYSTAGMUS PRIOR TO 45 DEGREES

- RT EYE- ONSET NYSTAGMUS PRIOR TO 45 DEGREES

While checking for vertical nystagmus, Mr. Varnadore kept moving his head. I advised him to move his chin down to help him keep his head straight. I had to repeat the same instructions multiple times. I observed a pronounced jerking of the eyes while moving the pen light upwards.

Walk and Turn Exercise:

The area for the following roadside exercises was level and free of debris. I asked Mr. Varnadore if could walk in a straight line, following the pattern of a line made out concrete on the floor, he stated yes. I advised Mr. Varnadore to put his left foot on the line, his right foot directly in front of it, touching heel to toe. I advised Mr. Varnadore to keep his arms down by his side and to stay in that position until I advise him to begin the exercise. I asked him if understood, and he said yes. While explaining the exercise to Mr. Varnadore, he was unable to keep balance and to put his right foot in front of the left touching heel to toe.

He kept using his arm to gain balance and had to repeat the same instructions in multiple occasion even though he advised he understood, and he was able to perform the exercise. Mr. Varnadore started too soon the exercise, I had to tell him to back off to the line so I could explain the exercise in more than one occasion. Mr. Varnadore missed multiple heel to toe steps, stepped off the line, used his arms to balance throughout the exercise, lost balance while turning, stumbled, and did not keep his front foot on the line to make the turn. Mr. Varnadore did not count his steps, and stopped while completing the exercise.

One Leg Stand Exercise.

The area for the following roadside exercises was level and free of debris. I instructed the subject to stand with his feet together and keep his arms down by his side. I instructed him to stay in that position until I tell him to start the exercise. I asked him if he understood, he stated yes. This exercise was first explained to the subject then was demonstrated by myself. Subject advised that he will be able to perform the exercise. I have to repeat the instructions multiple times. Mr. Varnadore was swaying while listening to the instructions, and after he started he stopped the exercise and advised that maybe he could not do it. I asked Mr. Varnadore if he had injuries that would prevent him to lift his leg approximately 6 inches off the ground. At that point his had slurred speech and I could barely understand what he was saying. After starting the exercise again Mr. Varnadore put his foot down, did not count out loud, and stopped the exercise in multiple occasions. Last time Mr. Varnadore put his foot down, he stayed like that before finishing the exercise and until I told him to stop.

Finger to Nose Exercise.

I advised Mr. Varnadore to stand with his feet together, arms to his side and his index fingers pointed. I told him to keep that position until I told him to start. I asked him if he understood, he stated yes. I had to repeat the instructions to Mr. Varnadore multiple times. When I advised him to begin he didn't keep his eyes closed, he failed to return his left arm to the side the first time I advised him to, and kept his arm up until I told him to put it down. When I advised him to raise his left arm to touch his nose, he raised the right one and then put it down and raised the left one again.

Based on the totality of the circumstances, I placed Mr. Varnadore under arrest under arrest for DUI pursuant to Florida Statute 316.193.1 at 5:14 PM. He was searched and no contraband was found. He was then secured in my patrol vehicle and taken to the Palm Beach County Jail. Once I arrived at the jail I conducted a 20 minute observation of Mr. Varnadore. At no time did he take anything by mouth or regurgitate. At approximately 6:05pm he provided a breath sample of .164. At approximately 6:08pm he provided a second sample of .164. He was then booked into the county jail.

The above incident occurred in Palm Beach County.
