On November 24, 2017, at approximately 1946 hours, I responded to 1034 Arezzo Cir, Boynton Beach, FL, in reference to a disturbance.

Upon arrival officers made contact with Lauren Bergman and Jeffrey Cole. Cole stated that he and Bergman are friends and that Bergman showed up to his house extremely intoxicated and he would like her to leave. I observed Bergman to appear intoxicated as she was slurring her words and swaying side to side while officers were speaking with her. While speaking with Bergman she spontaneously uttered "I can't drive, I'm drunk". Cole went inside his residence while officers spoke with Bergman in Cole's driveway. Officers made every attempt to get Bergman a ride back to her residence but she continually refused to cooperate. While speaking with Bergman she spontaneously walked away from officers and began banging on Cole's front door shouting "Jeff!". Bergman came to the door and stated "Please just get her out of here". Officers directed Bergman back to the drive way and informed her that if she continued to disturb Cole she would be placed under arrest for disorderly intoxication. Approximately five minutes after Bergman banged on Cole's front door, she again walked up to the front door and began banging while shouting "Jeff!" over and over. At that time officers detained Bergman. While officers were detaining Bergman, Cole opened the door, appearing extremely upset and stating "Get this girl out of here, she is making me angry!"

Cole opened the door in order to speak with officers. Ofc. Cardenas captured a sworn verbal statement from Cole via body worn Camera. During this statement Cole stated "I'm just trying to relax but she won't stop bothering me".

At this time I find probable cause to arrest and charge Lauren Bergman with one count of Disorderly Intoxication in violation of F.S.S 856.01 as she was causing a public disturbance while intoxicated. Bergman was transported to BBPD for booking and then turned over to the care and custody of the PBCJ.
