was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation.

On the 3rd day of April 20 19 at 1906 ☐ A.M ☒ P.M (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.)

On April 3rd, 2019 at 1906 hours, I was on routine patrol in the Boca Del Mar area of unincorporated Boca Raton, Fl , Palm Beach County. I noticed a car stopped in the middle of the road. The car was a black Cadillac SRX with tinted windows. The tag was 002AE8 and it was from Tennessee. The car was in the roadway on Porto Fino Dr. at the intersection of Lago Mar Circle. The car was past the stop sign and protruding in the roadway of Lago Mar Cir. I did not see anyone near the car. I stopped my patrol car behind the Cadillac and approached the car on foot. The engine was running. I noticed a person inside leaning against the door, possibly sleeping. I knocked several times but the woman would not wake up. I requested PBCFR to respond in case there was a medical problem. The front door was unlocked and I opened the door. I saw a glass with about 2 ounces of brown liquid in the glass located in the front cup holder. I called out to the woman and nudged her a few times but she would not respond. I reached in to the car to shut off the engine. I was finally able to wake the woman. She was groggy and disoriented. I asked her where she lived and she said Porto Fino Dr. I asked her for her drivers' license and she reached for her purse on the front seat. She seemed very sluggish and lethargic. She pulled out her wallet and I could clearly see her drivers' license in one of the plastic jackets. She went through the wallet several times but she still could not recognize her own drivers' license. She finally was able to recognize it and she handed it to me. Her name was Linda Henszey and her address was 22893 Ironwedge Dr. in Boca Raton, Fl. Because of the odor of an alcoholic beverage on her person, her groggy condition and the fact that she was sleeping in a running vehicle in a residential neighborhood, I was concerned she may be impaired. I called DS P. Pointu to my location to assist me with a DUI investigation. While I was waiting for DS Pointu to arrive, Ms. Henszey fell asleep again in the Cadillac. When DS Pointu met her at the Cadillac, he had to wake her up. He explained to her that he was conducting a DUI investigation and he needed her to exit the vehicle. After several attempts to get her out of the car, I offered to explain the procedure to her. Despite our efforts, she refused to cooperate and she was eventually removed from the car and placed in handcuffs.

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The undersigned certifies and swears that he/she has just and reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe that the above named Defendant committed the following violation of law.
The Person taken into custody

☒ committed the below acts in my presence.
☐ confessed to _____ admitting to the below facts.
☐ was observed by _____ who told _____ that he/she saw the arrested person commit the below acts.
☒ was found to have commited the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation.

On the 3rd day of April 2019 at 19:08 ☐ A.M. ☒ P.M. (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.)

I responded as a backup unit to the intersection of Lago Mar Circle and Porto Fino Drive, in unincorporated Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida for a driver who was passed out behind the wheel of vehicle stopped in the lane of traffic, with the engine running.

Upon arrival I met with D/S Jensen who told me and wrote in a supplemental PC affidavit that he observed a black Cadillac bearing Tennessee tag 002AE8 stopped in the lane of traffic with the engine running. Sitting on the driver seat was a female later identified as Linda Henszey leaning on the door apparently asleep. D/S Jensen had difficulties waking her up, but she eventually was awake and responsive. She had a slurred speech and glassy eyes.

I introduced myself to the driver and I observed that Henszev was again asleep. I woke her up and she denied having any medical condition nor being diabetic. I smelled an odor of unknown alcohol beverage that become stronger when she talked. She was lethargic, had a very slurred speech and I also observed in the center console a cup containing a brown drink that I later verified was still cold to the touch and was confirmed containing alcohol with a portable breath test.

I asked Henszev to exit her vehicle. She refused. I explained to her again that it was a legal order and that she had to comply. I also gave her the Taylor warning explaining that if she refused to do the task I was asking of her, it would be used against her in court and that I would have to base my arrest decision on what I had seen so far. Henszev continued to argue with me and again I gave her the opportunity to dispel my concern that she was impaired. After more than 3 attempts by myself and one by D/S Jensen, she continued to refuse to exit her vehicle.

Based on my observation, I had probable cause that Linda Henszey, did resist, obstruct or oppose D/S Pointu, a law enforcement officer of the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office, in the execution of a legal process or in the lawful execution of a legal duty, without offering or doing violence to the person of such officer, contrary to Florida Statute 843.02.
