PROBABLE CAUSE

On Tuesday, August 20, 2019, I (Cpl. Waychowsky #1198) responded to thw Tequesta Police Station reference a domestic disturbance

Upon arrival, I met with Kristy Osburn, who resides at 84 River Drive in Tequesta with her Husband, Matthew Osburn. The Osburns are in the process of going through a divorce. K. Osburn stated she was in a verbal altercation with M. Osburn earlier this morning. M. Osburn attempted to kick her out of the house. K. Osburn stated M. Osburn pushed her out of the house and attempted to close the door three (3) times on K. Osburns left arm. There were three noticeable marks on K. Osburns left arm. Photos were taken of the bruising and submitted into evidence. K. Osburn was given a copy of the Domestic Violence Notice of Legal Rights and Remedies.

After speaking with me initially, K. Osburn requested to give her formal recorded statement to our female officer, Ofc. Tana Donadio. The interview was conducted in the Tequesta Police interview room 1.

I drove to 84 River Dr. to speak with M. Osburn. He came out and stated what happened during their altercation that day. He was cooperative, and his story matched what K. Osburn stated. M. Osburn did state he didn't think he made any marks on K. Osburn's arm. I placed M. Osburn under arrest for domestic battery per F.S.S. 784.03.1a1. I placed handcuffs on him behind his back and ensured proper fit. I transported him to the Tequesta Police Station for completion of the proper paperwork for the Palm Beach County Jail.

Once complete, I transported M. Osburn to the Palm Beach County Jail for booking with no incident.

No further information.
