PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

The undersigned certifies and swears that he/she has just and reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe that the above named Defendant committed the following violation of law.

The Person taken into custody . . .

[ ] committed the below acts in my presence.

[ ] confessed to _____ admitting to the below facts.

[ ] was observed by _____ who told _____ that he/she saw the arrested person committ the below acts.

[X] was found to have committed the below acts, resulting from my (described) investigation.

On the 13 day of October, 2018 at 23:28 (Specifically include facts constituting cause for arrest.)

The following incident occurred in the City of Boca Raton, Palm Beach County, Florida.

On October 13, 2018 at approximately 2212 hours, I responded to 601 N. Ocean Boulevard in reference to a domestic disturbance. Upon arrival, I made contact with the complainant, Dino Mondelli. According to Mondelli, an unknown white female wearing a red and white dress was causing a verbal disturbance in the parking lot area of the condominium. Mondelli stated that he believed the female was engaged in a domestic argument with another male in the complex.

BRPD units then located a white male, later identified as Alexander Kozlowski, in the fourth floor stairwell area, who appeared visibly shaken and covered in sweat. Kozlowski stated that he was involved in a physical domestic disturbance with his live-in girlfriend, Melanie Savitsky, in their apartment as well as in the parking lot area. According to Kozlowski, he and Savitsky had consumed alcohol earlier in the evening, when Savitsky began to accuse him of cheating. Kozlowski stated that the argument occurred inside of their condominium, as well as outside in the parking lot area. During the course of the argument while inside, Kozlowski stated that Savitsky struck and scratched him several times with an open palm, causing several lacerations across his right forearm. Photographs of Kozlowski`s injury were taken and submitted to BRPD Evidence. He refused medical treatment by BRFD. Savitsky then threw a vodka bottle in Kozlowski`s direction. Kozlowski, confirming that he was in fear of being struck by the glass vodka bottle, made a quick movement away, causing the bottle to miss him and shatter across the condominium`s tile floor. While the argument continued, Savitsky, who was extremely intoxicated, walked on the wet tile area where the vodka bottle had been shattered. Due to her level of intoxication, as well as the wet surface, she slipped and fell forward, hitting her head and cutting her legs.

Kozlowski stated that while both he and Savitsky were inside of their condominium,

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

Savitsky then selected a large (approximately 12 inches in total length) silver and black kitchen knife. According to Kozlowski, Savitsky "came after me," causing him to flee out of the condominium and hold the front door shut. Savitsky then slashed the front door several times with the knife, causing the glass to become scratched. Kozlowski ran from the fifth floor to get away from Savitsky and contact his attorney. It was at this time that BRPD made contact with Kozlowski.

I then made contact with Savitsky inside of the condominium, unit 505. It should be noted that Savitsky was extremely intoxicated and initially unable to recall any details of the incident. Savitsky was unable to provide any explanation as to how the vodka bottle became smashed against the tile floor, as well as how she sustained lacerations to her calves. It should be noted that small glass fragments were observed imprinted on Savitsky`s leg near the laceration cuts, indicated that her injury was most likely sustained from falling on the shattered glass. A large pool of clear liquid (most likely vodka) and blood was observed on the tile floor. It should be noted that a large smudge mark was also observed on the ground, indicative of a possible fall due to the wet tile floor.

Savitsky stated that although she could not recall much of the incident, she believed that she was struck several times by Kozlowski. Savitsky had a large bump on her forehead, covered in a clear liquid, indicative of being struck against a hard and wet surface, likely the tile floor after a fall. Savitsky refused medical treatment by BRFD on scene. It should be noted that Kozlowski is much larger in size compared to Savitsky, and in the event he struck her, she would have sustained numerous other visible injuries. Furthermore, a check of Kozlowski`s hands and knuckles was conducted, with no signs of redness or bruising to indicate that he had struck anything recently. When Savitsky was asked about the knife, she stated that she had shut the front door and said, "you`re not coming back in." She denied knowing how the glass door sustained several knife slash marks.

I then located a knife sitting on the kitchen countertop next to a bloodied towel. The knife, accurately described by Kozlowski was approximately 12-inches in total length, with a silver blade and a black handle. The tip of the knife was bent, indicative of being struck against a hard surface. Four slash marks were observed on the inside of the glass panel to the condominium`s door. The knife was collected, and photographs of the damage to the door were taken and submitted to BRPD Evidence.

At the conclusion of my investigation, due to injuries sustained by Kozlowski corroborating with his story, in addition to the injuries sustained by Savitsky appearing to be sustained by an intoxicated fall onto broken glass due to a wet tile floor due to the broken bottle, Savitsky did actually and intentionally strike Kozlowski, her boyfriend, against his will, in violation of F.S.S. 784.03(1A1) - domestic simple battery.

PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

Additionally due to the knife markings on the door matching the bent tip of the knife blade, which substantiates the allegation that Savitsky chased Kozlowski and struck the door with the knife while he was holding the door shut from the exterior side, probable cause exists that Savitsky did actually and intentionally threatened by act to do violence against Kozlowski, her boyfriend, which caused a well founded fear in him that violence was imminent, and further did commit the assault with a large kitchen knife, a deadly weapon, in violation of F.S.S. 784.021(1)(a) - aggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

At this time, Savitsky was arrested and placed in handcuffs, which were checked for tightness and double locked. Officer Murphy (ID # 751) responded and conducted a search of Savitsky, which was negative for contraband. Savitsky was transported to Boca Raton Regional Hospital for medical clearance, and then transported to BRPD Booking Facility for processing. She was then transported and turned over to Palm Beach County Jail, where she will await final disposition.
