P R O B A B L E C A U S E S T A T E M E N T	On August 25, 2019 at approximately 8:30 p.m. I, Officer Sam Warren, was dispatched to 704 Duchess CT, Palm Beach Gardens, Palm Beach County FL, in reference to a disturbance. I met with the caller, Michael Ogradnick, who stated his wife, Michelle S. Ogradnick (W/F DOB:03/12/82) came home with their daughter and was arguing with him and throwing trash around the residence. I observed trash in the driveway to be thrown around. My body worn camera was used on this call. The results of my investigation are below.
	I made contact with Michael who stated Michelle was in the upstairs kids' bedroom and locked herself in there with all three children. Michael stated nothing physical took place tonight, but Michelle has been arguing with him all day about missing keys to the vehicle. Michael stated he did not take the keys and has no idea what she is talking about. Michael stated earlier in the day he took the boys out for the day and Michelle took their daughter. The kids are Anthony J. Ogradnick (8/18/09 W/M), Jaclyn F. Ogradnick (8/9/10 W/F) and Michael A. Ogradnick (11/15/13 W/M). Michael stated all three kids were in the house and present when the arguing was taking place. Michael stated they are going through a divorce and are in a bad relationship. Michael stated he wasn't sure if she was under the influence of either alcohol or medical Marijuana. Michael stated he just wants her to leave for the night and for everything to calm down. Michael did not have any marks on him indicating a physical altercation took place.
	I made contact with Michelle, who was upstairs in the kids' bedroom with all three of them. Michelle stated she wants to speak with a female officer, so I notified Officer K. Slaughter #500 to respond to the scene. I convinced Michelle to let the kids out of the room so I could see them and check their wellbeing. The kids exited the room and went downstairs. I went into the bedroom to speak with Michelle and observed her left cheek to be swollen. The cheek was not bruised and had a small red dot in the middle of the swelling, as if it was a sting of some kind or medicine was administered. Michelle was calm with no signs of crying and there was no blood on her face or anywhere on her body.

E	Michelle's hair was not disheveled, and she had makeup on her face, which was undisturbed. Michelle's hair and body were dry, indicating she did not shower or wipe anything off her. Michelle stated she took Jaclyn to the mall today around 1:00 p.m. after arguing with Michael about missing keys. She said at the mall they shopped and ate lunch at Brio, which was a salad. I asked Michelle if she had any allergic reactions to food and she stated no. Later in the investigation Michelle was confronted about her Gluten allergy (which was discovered) and she said she did have a little bread at lunch. She stated they arrived home after the mall around 8:05 p.m. and the argument ensued again. She stated she tore the house apart checking for the keys and threw all the trash around the driveway. She stated her husband Michael would not leave her alone and was following her around the house. She went to get in the shower when Michael entered the bathroom and she stated he hit her in the face. Michelle could not advise what hand or if it was open or close fist. She stated the altercation took place in the master bathroom. Michelle had no additional marks on her body indicting physical altercation. Palm Beach Gardens FR (run #7900) arrived on scene to provide medical attention for the matter. Paramedics looked at her swollen face and confirmed that it was consistent with an allergic reaction. They also confirmed that it was not related to a battery as it lacked any specific bruising, trauma, and was too uniform to be from a closed fist. I did a walkthrough of the master bedroom and bathroom where I observed no signs of an altercation taking place. There was no blood anywhere in bathroom, to include the trash. There was a towel on the ground, which was not wet, nor did it have blood on it. I spoke with Jaclyn who was separated from her mother, father and both brothers in the living. Jaclyn stated she went to the mall today with her mother and her parents were arguing. Jaclyn stated when they went to the mall today her mom's face was not swollen. She mentioned that she knows her mom has an allergic reaction to "gluten", which is commonly in bread. She said when her mom has the reaction her face gets swollen in certain areas. I asked her if her mom ate bread today at lunch and she said yes then a salad. Jaclyn stated her mom did not ask for "gluten-free" bread at dinner. The allergic reaction was confirmed with Michael, Jaclyn and Michelle. Jaclyn stated she heard her parents yelling but did not see anything physical happen between them. Based on the statements from the kids, Michael and my Law Enforcement experience dealing with battery calls involving injuries there was no evidence of a battery occurring involving Michael and Michelle. I spoke with Michelle again and advised her to clarify her statements and to speak the truth. Michelle was sworn in and stated the statement she provided was accurate and true. Based on all the above information and the totality of the circumstances Michelle Ogrodnick was placed under arrest for providing a false report to Law Enforcement alleging a crime took place pursuant to F.S.S 837.05(1)(A). Once in custody Michelle began to have trouble breathing and was transported to Gardens Medical for treatment. It should be noted when I observed Michelle at the hospital the swelling on her cheek was going down.
