NARR

On 09/12/2018 at 1007 hours I responded to 21464 Town Lakes Dr, apartment 713, in regards to a female who was claiming her boyfriend threw her to the ground and she was injured.

There I spoke with the defendant, Regina Pellegrino, who explained she received several text messages from her ex-boyfriend, the victim Joshua Zimmerman, stating he wanted his belongings back from her apartment. Pellegrino explained she and Zimmerman have been involved in an intimate relationship for approximately 1 year, and have recently broken up. With the permission of Zimmerman's roommate, who left the residence unlocked for her; Pellegrino claimed when she walked into Zimmerman's apartment she observed another female in Zimmerman's bed, where she then began to yell at Zimmerman, leading him to throw her to the ground and push her. Pellegrino had one small abrasion to her fourth toe of her right foot.

I then spoke with Zimmerman, who explained he did text Pellegrino the day prior, 09/11/2018, in regards to his belongings; however, he did not tell her a time to bring the belongings, nor did he think she would be coming to his residence when she did on this date. Zimmerman explained when Pellegrino walked into his apartment she threw a bag down, where she then noticed the female in Zimmerman's bed. Pellegrino allegedly began to strike Zimmerman with shoes, where she was striking him in face. It was at this time Zimmerman began to push Pellegrino out of his apartment. There were shoes thrown about the apartment in the area of the hallway near the front door, which Zimmerman advised were previously located within his bedroom. Zimmerman had a small abrasion to the bridge of his nose, as well as a small abrasion to his right upper lip.

Based on the statements obtained, and injuries observed, I find probable cause to charge Regina Pellegrino with (1) count of Domestic Simple Battery, pursuant to F.S.S. 784.03(1A1)
