Pen Light Task (Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus [HGN]): The defendant was placed with their feet together and hands down by their side. The defendant was clearly instructed to await the competition of the instructions prior beginning the task. The defendant acknowledged that they clearly understood my instructions prior to me beginning my instructions for the task. The defendant stated that they clearly understood my instructions for the task. I placed my stimulus in front of the defendant Upon commencing the Pen Light Task (HGN) the defendant moved their head side to side in lieu of following with their eyes only, anticipated the stimulus, and did not follow the stimulus. During the task I observed that the defendant had equal pupil size and did not exhibit resting nystagmus. The defendant's eyes tracked equally. Vertical Gaze Nystagmus (VGN): I then checked the defendant for Vertical Gaze Nystagmus (VGN). I saw a distinct and sustained nystagmus at maximum deviation in both of the defendant's left and right eyes. Post SFST's: At this time I found probable cause to believe that the defendant was impaired for the purposes of operating and/or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle pursuant to Florida State Statute 316.193(1) and was impaired for the purposes operating and/or being actual physical control of a motor vehicle pursuant to Florida State Statute 316.1927(3C1). At this time I also found probable clause that as a driver of a motor vehicle involved in a crash that occurred on public or private property which resulted in injury to any person, did willfully failed to remain at the scene of the crash until he or she fulfilled the requirements of Florida Statute 316.062, contrary to Florida Statute 316.027(1)(a) I placed the defendant in an handcuffing position by asking them to spread their feet apart, placed their hand behind them and close their eye. I then asked the defendant to count backwards from 50. The defendant stated the he knew he was under arrest. The defendant was handcuffed to the rear. I checked the handcuffs for proper fit and double locked them. I checked the subjects prior to placing him in my patrol vehicle per policy. The defendant had a Hyundai key in his possession. I then placed the defendant in the rear of my PBSO patrol vehicle. I returned to the scene and identified that the key in the defendants possession was the key for the Hyundai that was involved in the traffic collision. An inventory search of the vehicle was conducted prior to tow per PBSO policy. The vehicle was towed by rotation by by D & D automotie to their impound lot.

WALK & TURN:

I had the defendant used the white fog line that was on the ground. I had the defendant place their left foot on the line with their right foot in front of the left, heel to toe. I told the defendant to remain in the position throughout my instructions and demonstration. The defendant was instructed not to start the task prior to me telling them to begin. The defendant acknowledged and stated they completely understood my instructions. I asked the defendant if the ground was level and flat and they stated yes. I asked the defendant if the area was clear of debris and they stated yes. The defendant was then instructed on the task which was also demonstrated. The defendant swayed during my instructions. The defendant came out of the stance prior to me telling him to begin. Once the defendant was told to begin the task they missed heel to toe, stepped off the line, used their arms for balance, made an improper turn, and slowed to balance/steady their self. The defendant did not count out loud, asked for additional instructions, and swayed throughout completing the task.

ONE LEG STAND:

The defendant was instructed to stand with their feet together and their hands down by their side. They were then instructed to remain in the position throughout the instructions and demonstration until instructed to begin. The defendant acknowledged and stated that they clearly understood the instructions. The defendant swayed while in the instructional position. The defendant came out of the instructional position and/or started the task prior to being told to begin. After being told to start the defendant put their foot down immediately and told me he couldn't complete the task. I asked him if he want to attempt the task and he that that he did. Once the task was restarted the defendant put their foot down prior to being told to stop, used their arms for balance, and swayed. The defendant did not count in the manner instructed. The defendant did not point their toe and or look as their toe as instructed and had to be instructed to do so. The defendant did not as instructed.

FINGER TO NOSE:

The defendant was instructed to stand with their feet together and their hands down by their side. The defendant was then instructed to remain in the position throughout the instructions and demonstration until instructed to begin. The defendant acknowledged and stated that they clearly understood these instructions. The defendant swayed while in the instructional position. I instructed the defendant on the task and demonstrated the task. The defendant acknowledged the instructions stating that they clearly understood them. The defendant did not tip their head back as instructed when told to start the task. The defendant proceeded to miss/search for the tip of their nose with the tip of their finger, started with the wrong hand, and did not bring their hand immediately bring back as instructed after numerous reminders to do so. The defendant did not keep their head tilted back during the task.

MODIFIED ROMBERG:

The defendant was instructed to stand with their feet together and their hands down by their side. The defendant was then instructed to remain in the position throughout the instructions and demonstration until instructed to begin. The defendant acknowledged and stated that they clearly understood these instructions. The defendant swayed while in the instructional position. I asked the defendant if they knew how long half a minute was. The defendant stated to me that half a minute is 30 seconds. The defendant estimated 30 seconds to be approximately 20 seconds.
