NARRATIVE

Jennifer Alembik (ex-wife/mother), W/F Sydney Alembik (daughter/13YOA), and W/F Ava Alembik (daughter/11YOA).

I spoke with Steven first inside his home. Steven advised me that he picked Sydney and Ava up from school today because they were switching the day on which parent has custody of the children because Steven is going to Washington DC in the morning. Steven advised that Jennifer arrived at the home and started to yell at him about him having the children today and he also believes that she was upset about a recent alimony adjustment. Steven advised Jennifer and him were at the front door arguing. Steven put his hands up because he thought Jennifer was going to hit him. Steven advised Jennifer scratched his arm with her nails, so in defense he pushed her away. I observed a mark on Steven's right arm.

I spoke with Jennifer who was outside across the street in her vehicle. Jennifer advised that today is not the day Steven was supposed to pick up the children from school. Jennifer advised she rang the door bell to the home after Ava and Sydney told them they were at Stevens. Jennifer then advised that Steven and her got into a verbal argument at the front door. Jennifer advised that Steven walked up to her so close that his nose was almost touching hers. Steven then proceeded to push Jennifer and stepped out of the home to close the front door. Jennifer said in defense she threw her keys at Steven as she was being pushed. Steven then pushed Jennifer again and she fell backwards onto the ground. Jennifer advised she never put her hands on Steven and the mark on Stevens arm could have come from when the keys were thrown at Steven in defense.

I spoke with Sydney (13YOA) separately outside the vehicle at the front door of the home. Sydney advised that Steven picked Ava and her up from school today without telling Jennifer. Ava texted Jennifer telling her that Steven picked them up and they were at his home. Jennifer told the children she was coming to pick them up. Jennifer arrived at the home and rang the doorbell. Steven walked up to the door and they began to have a verbal argument. Sydney said Jennifer was standing outside the front door and Steven walked up Jennifer and pushed her. Sydney said she heard the sound of keys. Sydney then saw Steven push Jennifer again and Jennifer fell to the ground. Sydney said Ava and her screamed. Steven shut the door and locked it. Sydney said she ran to the front door, unlocked it and ran outside.

Ava did not see the whole altercation.

No marks were seen on Jennifer.

Jennifer refused to fill out a sworn witness statement and advised she wanted to speak to an attorney first.

Based on the above aforementioned probable cause exists to charge Steven Alembik with Simple Battery (Domestic) pursuant to F.S.S 784.03(1A1). Upon speaking with Sydney about the altercation, it was determined that Steven was the primary aggressor by pushing Jennifer in such a manner he intentionally touched Jennifer against he will.
