VICTIM NOTIFICATION REQUIRED

PROBABLE CAUSE

On Sunday March 31, 2019 at approximately 3:10 AM I was dispatched to 306 Fairway North in the city limits of Tequesta, Florida in reference to a domestic dispute in progress.

Upon arrival, I made contact with a white male identified by his FL Driver's License as Thomas Christopher Downey, who had a strong order of alcohol emanating from his breath and person. I then made contact with the complainant, white female identified by her FL Driver's License as Megan M. Downey. Both parties reside at this address and are husband and wife.

M. Downey stated she was sleeping in her daughters room, when T. Downey came home at approximately 2:30AM, entering into their daughter's bedroom smelling of alcohol. M. Downey stated T. Downey said good night, but due to his intoxication he was not able to formulate a statement. T. Downey became loud and abusive so M. Downey asked him to leave so they could get back to sleep.

At that time, T. Downey started to destroy the furniture in the house, M. Downey attempted to call 911 several times. She told her three daughters to go into the other bedroom and close the door, while her husband began to destroy the bedrooms and throw things at her, dousing her with Gatorade. T. Downey then made his way into the living room destroying furniture and other household items there. T. Downey destroyed furniture throughout the whole house causing an estimated amount of $5,000.00 worth of property damage.

T. Downey stated he would take M. Downey outside and have a dump truck run her over. M. Downey stated he made several threats and pushed her on the bed, she got struck with the closet door and she felt threatened. She also stated that he interfered with her attempt to call 911 several times and he restricted her from moving off the bed as he held her down.

M. Downey refused any medical treatment and had no visible marks or bruises at the time of my investigation.

Upon completion of my investigation, I believe there is probable cause to arrest T. Downey with domestic battery, tampering or harassing victim, and criminal mischief pursuant to F.S.S 784.03(1)(a)(1), 914.22(1)(e), 806.13(1)(b)(3).
