NARRATIVE

domestic that was in-progress. Plaza security had just followed a male and female couple from the IPix Movie Theater where they started arguing. The couple walked across the street, entered Yard House and sat at the inside bar where Officer Deen and Officer Gannon initially made contact.

Upon my arrival, I observed a white male, later identified as Todd Carnrite, and a white female, later identified as Karen Smith sitting at the bar speaking to Officers Deen and Gannon. Carnrite appeared to be intoxicated as he was drinking beer. His face was flushed and I could smell the odor of an alcoholic beverage emitting from his face and mouth. Carnrite would not allow officers to speak and he would not allow Smith to speak with officers alone. Smith appeared as if she was upset and in fear while we were in front of Carnrite. Officer Deen attempted to have Smith separate from Carnrite so she could speak to Officer Deen in private. As Smith was leaving her seat at the bar, Carnrite reached across and grabbed Smith`s arm while saying "hold on, you`re not leaving" and prevented Smith from leaving with Officer Deen. Smith showed a sudden look of fear on her face as Officer Gannon and I removed Carnrite`s hand from her arm. (See Officer Deen`s report for further)

As Officer Deen left the interior of Yard House with Smith, Officer Gannon and I escorted Carnrite to the front of the establishment. Upon exiting the front door, I gave Carnrite instruction to turn right to avoid Smith. Carnrite ignored my instruction to stay separated and attempted to walk directly to Smith while yelling and saying "let`s get the fuck outta here Karen". I grabbed Carnrite`s right arm in an attempt to keep him from aggressively approaching Smith. Carnrite pulled away from my hold as Officer Gannon grabbed his left arm. Carnrite was escorted along the sidewalk, south of Smith until he was out of sight. Officer Lyman arrived on scene to assist at this time.

I spoke with Carnrite who advised me that he was in a verbal argument with his girlfriend of three months. He said they were arguing over a text message that he received while watching a movie. Carnrite did not want to talk about the argument any further at this point. Carnrite did not have any physical injuries.

I then spoke with Smith separately, who advised that she was in an argument with Carnrite over several prior girlfriends, one of whom had recently text him while they were watching a movie. Smith informed me that she and Carnrite have been dating for three months and there is a clear expectation of intimacy between them. Smith told me she wanted to speak to officers regarding the incident while she was in Yard House but did not want to cause a "scene". Smith said she knew Carnrite would become aggressive with police and appeared afraid while telling me this. Smith did not wish to speak to me further regarding the incident.

I advised Carnrite that he was being placed under arrest and to face away from me and the other officers. Carnrite ignored my instruction as his face became more flushed. I reached toward Carnrite with my right hand and grabbed his right wrist. As I attempted to turn Carnrite away from me, I continued to inform him that he was under arrest. Carnrite attempted to pull his right hand away by clenching his fist and turning his body in the opposite direction. Officer Gannon grabbed his left arm and Officer Lyman assisted me with his right arm. During handcuffing, Carnrite continued to resist by tightening his arms and clenching his fists while pulling away from all three officers. I was able to place handcuffs on his wrists then double lock and check for tightness.

Carnrite was placed in the back of my marked patrol vehicle where plaza security advised Carnrite that he was trespassed form Mizner Park for a period of one year. Carnrite was transported to the Boca Raton Police booking facility where he stayed until being transferred to the Palm Beach County Jail.
