NARR

On 1/9/2019, at approximately 0310 hours, I was on patrol when I observed a red Jeep bearing Florida Tag ECLI65 running in the driveway of 7598 Fairway Trail. I stopped to observe the vehicle when I saw a white male walk out of the house and toward the vehicle. The male began placing items inside the car, then went back into the house. A few moments later the male came back outside into the front yard. He was immediately followed by a white female who ran up behind him and started hitting him. I immediately activated my overhead lights, exited my vehicle, separated both subjects, and instructed them to sit down in the grass.

I spoke with the female subject, identified as Trisha Ebert, who stated she and her fiancé, Jason Marva, were having an argument. According to Ebert, she and Marva had been drinking earlier and began arguing about finances after arriving home. Marva started going outside the house, causing Ebert to believe he was going to leave for the night. Ebert stated she became so angry and followed him out to try and stop him from leaving. When asked why she hit Marva, she stated it was because she was so upset about the argument and him possibly leaving. Ebert stated nothing physical occurred at any other point during the argument.

I then spoke with Jason Marva, who stated he and Ebert started arguing shortly after arriving home. Marva stated he and Ebert had been drinking, which is the reason they started arguing. Marva stated he did not intend to leave the house, but was just taking out the trash when Ebert came out and hit him. Marva stated Ebert only hit him one time. Ebert stated nothing physical occurred at any other point during the argument.

Based on what I observed on scene and the statements from both parties, I placed Trisha Ebert under arrest for domestic battery in violation of Florida State Statute 784.03(1A1). Ebert was transported to BRPD for booking and then turned over to Palm Beach County Jail.
