Roadside Tasks

Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus

- [x] Left Eye Does Not Follow Smoothly
- [ ] Left Eye Jerks at 45 Degree Angle or Less
- [ ] Distinct Jerking Left Eye at Maximum Deviation
- [x] Right Eye Does Not Follow Smoothly
- [ ] Right Eye Jerks at 45 Degree Angle or Less
- [ ] Distinct Jerking Right Eye at Maximum Deviation

Brown eyes I showed the driver how I would like her to follow the pen The driver did not follow the pen with her eyes as directed. first pass she moved her head and she stated "oh eyes not my head " I restarted the exercise and had to advise the driver to follow the pen. The driver was not following the pen during most passes she would re focus on looking forward while the pen is at the side. I asked why and she mentioned it was after a pause its cold and I get distracted by how cold I'm. Attempted again and she still would move her eyes to center prior to the pen moving. I asked again why she was doing this as if there may be a issue. Her response was " I kinda have pretty eyes". got distracted by your eyes. Attempted again then stopped to have her relax her eyes and her stance. I allowed her to keep her arms across her body.. I was never able to her to completely follow the directions and the pen.

Walk and Turn Task

I was able to provide the defendant a jacket from her car. I asked the driver to stand with her left on the line with her right foot directly in front of the left touching heal to toe with her hands down by his sides. The line was a solid Blue line. As the driver attempted to stand in this position she was using her arms for balance and was swaying. She sted several times while attempting this stance" i could not do this sober I I asked if she wanted to removed her shoes which she did not . asked the driver to remain in that position until told to begin the task and DO NOT start. She could I not stand in the start position I explained and demonstrated the exercise and she said she understood the instructions had had NO questions. Would not preform because " with those instruction could not to this when I'm sober "clumsy as fuck. I asked if she would like to attempt to perform and if she may want to remove her shoes to attempt. " driving wise I can drive but I walk down a straight the line I cant".

One Leg Stand

I asked the driver stand with her feet together and arms/hands down at her sides and DO NOT begin until instructed. She mentioned it was really cold and asked to hold on to something. I explained and demonstrated the exercise and she stated she understood the instructions and had NO questions. When told to begin she mentioned she was really cold I'm fucking freezing. Was willing to attempt exercise though did not want to perform because she was shivering. Told her I would take into consideration the weather. NOT PERFORMED. "I'm totally not drunk".

Finger To Nose

I asked the driver to stand with her feet together, arms/hands down at her sides and extend her index fingers , she pointed her middle fingers and had to be told which ones were index. As I explained and demonstrated the exercise the defendant attempted to practice perform the task. I told her each time she could not perform the exercise until I asked her and she had to listen. After several times of explaining and she stated she understood the instructions and had NO questions. I asked the driver to tilt her head back and close her eyes. On the first left, "what do you want me to do with my left". I stopped the exercise and told the defendant to relax and step out of the starting position. I reconfirmed the defendant stated she understood. I re explained the instructions and the defendant still practiced by doing the movement in the instruction phase. I asked the defendant to move several feet to the side due to vehicle traffic in the parking lot. I asked if the defendant was ready " apparently I'm" On the first left the defendant tilled her head to the left, she did this for each of the commands of right, left, right, right and left. I asked why she tilled her neck and her response was" I questioned what situation I was put in."

Romberg Balance

I asked if the defendant knew the alphabet? she said yes. I asked the driver to stand with her feet together and arms/hands down at her sides. I asked her to recite the alphabet in a non-rhythmic manner A-Z. the following is her response A-G long pause never realized i didn't all the letters of the alphabet. H,I,C,K long pause defendant had a dazed expression her face during this time. " I did not know it was a thing" She asked are we suppose to know the whole alphabet?
L,M,O,D Q,R,S, Y,K, G. "I'M way off".
I asked the defendant her highest level of education prior to the exercise. There was a long pause where I stated, 2 year 4 year degree, a few months of college no college, before she was able to respond with a Masters Degree from USF.
