NARR

My BWC was utilized during the event below.

On Monday, 5/6/19 at approximately 2143 hours, I arrived at 107 Beverely Rd E in reference to a welfare check. Upon my arrival, I made contact with W/F Lesley Gimbel (4/26/88). Gimbel advised her boyfriend W/M William

NARRATIVE

Hambuechen (W/M 8-8-61) and she got into a physical altercation. Gimbel began to cry and said I don't want anything to happen to Hambuechen. Gimbel had redness under her left eye and a small bruise on the left side of her neck.

I obtained a sworn statement from Gimbel and it stated the following: Gimbel advised Hambuechen and her were lying in bed approximately two hours before Police were called. While in bed, Hambuechen asked to have sex with her and she said no. Gimbel stated Hambuechen began to get belligerent with her by calling her names and yelling at her. Gimbel stated it got to the point Hambuechen got out of bed and pinned her up against the wall. While she was pinned up against the wall he began to bang her head on wall. Gimbel stated she was able to get away and the altercation stopped. Gimbel advised she should have called during the altercation but was afraid the altercation would have escalated into something worse.

After speaking with Gimbel, I spoke with Hambuechen. I observed a small cut on his left arm and scratches on his face. Hambuechen advised the small cut was from three days ago and it was from Gimbel biting him during another altercation that the police were not called to. Hambuechen denied having an altercation with Gimbel tonight. Hambuechen stated several times that he has been sleeping for the past two hours. Hambuechen denies all allegations of any altercation.

Due to the statement from Gimbel and Hambuechen not able to provide any evidence to prove Gimbel was the primary aggressor, I found probable cause to arrest Hambuechen for Simple Battery (Domestic). I placed Hambuechen into handcuffs, checked for spacing and double locked for safety.

I first transported Hambuechen to the Jupiter Medical Center for medical clearance. I then transported him to the Jupiter Police Department for processing and later transported to the Palm Beach County Jail.

Based on my above described investigation, Hambuechen did actually and intentionally touch or strike Lesley Gimbel contrary to Florida Statute 784.03(1).
